LIST OF TABLES

Table-2.1: Occupation of the Assamese speaking Muslims
Table-2.2: Occupation of the Bengali speaking Muslims
Table-2.3: Occupation of the Hindi speaking Muslim
Table-2.4: The Income of the Family per month
Table-3.1: Presiding of Nikah (marriage)
Table-3.2: Preferences given in selection of groom
Table-3.3: Preferences given in selection of bride
Table-3.4: Ways of marrying off one’s daughter
Table-3.5: Terminology used by the Assamese speaking, Bengali speaking and Hindi speaking Muslims.
Table-3.6: Type of family
Table-3.7: Type of families in Assamese speaking Muslim household
Table-3.8: Type of families in Bengali speaking Muslim household
Table-3.9: Type of families in Hindi speaking Muslim household
LISTS OF FIGURES

Figure-2.1: Mother tongue of the respondents.
Figure-2.2: Mother tongue and sex of the respondents.
Figure-2.3: Do female members work?
Figure-2.4: Mother tongue of the respondents and female members working.
Figure-2.5: Income of the family per month.
Figure-2.6: Mother tongue of the respondent and income of the family.
Figure-2.7: Mother tongue of the respondent and kind of private property.
Figure-3.1: Presiding of Nikah.
Figure-3.2: Preferences given in selection of groom.
Figure-3.3: Preferences given in selection of groom and mother tongue of the respondents.
Figure-3.4: Preference given in selection of bride.
Figure-3.5: Preference given in selection of bride and mother tongue of respondent.
Figure-3.6: Ways of marrying off the daughters.
Figure-3.7: Preference for type of marriage.
Figure-3.8: Preference for type of marriage and mother tongue of respondents.