Acknowledgement

With a deep sense of reverence, I would like to express my deepest sense of gratefulness and indebtedness to my Supervisor, Dr. Rekha M. Shangpliang, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, NEHU, for her valuable, prolific guidance and continuous support, throughout my study, without which, I am sure, this work would not have been possible. I would also like to express my heartfelt gratitude to the Head of the Department, Prof. Nikhlesh Kumar, for his valuable suggestions and encouragement and my gratefulness to the teachers of the Department, Prof. C.L. Imchen, Prof. I.L. Aier, Dr. D.V. Kumar, Dr. A.K. Nongkynrih, and Prof. B. Panda and the office staff for their help and assistance.

I am also thankful to Pu. C. Vanlalena, Divisional Forest Officer of Champhai Division, Ms. Pi. R. Laldinpuii, Upper Division Clerk, and the Staff of the office for their generosity in providing me the necessary official information and guiding me to the members of the local Village Forest Development Committees in the three localities where my study was conducted.

I am also very grateful to Pu. Zoramthanga, ex-president of Dinthar Veng, Village Forest Development Committee, for his keen interest in my research work and afforded me valuable information regarding the activities of the Village Forest Development Committee in the Veng. My sincere thanks also goes to the respondents who were ready to give me the required data and information.

Last but not the least, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude and indebtedness to my Parents for their abiding inspiration, guidance, care, support and burden they had to shoulder and enabling me to complete my Study. I would also like to express my sincere gratitude to my friends Nobelyne, Janet, Banlumlang and Vijanti for their support and encouragement through my study and lending me their helping hand whenever I needed it, I give thanks to Almighty God for blessing me with good health and strength to carry out my study.
