ACKNOWLEDGMENT

My sincere thanks and gratitude to Prof. Desmond L. Kharmawphlang, my supervisor and guide for supporting me in all possible ways towards the completion of this thesis. Thank you Sir for all the help, support and encouragement you have rendered through these many years.

My sincere appreciation and gratitude to aunt Athisü Chisa who on many an evening good-naturedly sung the folk songs over and again for me to document. Your insightful interpretation of the song texts allowed me to understand the Mao folk songs in many ways. To my sister Athia, thanks for the help in collecting the data as well as in helping with the insightful interpretation of the song texts. A. Besa and A. Pfukrehru Paul thanks for helping me to collect the song data. My cousin Kh. Ashiho thanks for typing the manuscript.

Heartfelt thanks to my wife Dr. (Mrs) Rimika Lanong, thank you for your love and care, whenever I needed support you were always there, thank you. Thanks for your comments, encouragement, and for proof-reading the manuscripts. To my parents, Shri. Hepuni Kaiso (Retd. DI of Schools) and Smt. (Lt.) Athisü Nina, your love, prayers, support and encouragement that kept me going throughout my life, words are not enough to thank you. My brother Adani, sister-in-law Akhaa-a, my sisters Athia and Henia, thanks to you all for always being there for me and for being so involved in my research in some way. Thanks to my nieces and nephews for being good children.
Thanks and appreciation to the teaching and non-teaching staff and fellow scholars of the department, for your cooperation and encouragement. Dr. Curiously Bareh, Dr. Karung Tarun Kom, Dr. Henry N. Pangamte, Thomas and Timothy, thanks to you all for the encouragement and thanks to many others whose name I failed to mention here.

Above all thank God the Almighty for everything in enabling me to complete this research.
