I have a genuine feeling of gratitude to all people who were instrumental in the successful completion of this work. I am sure they understand my feelings for them, though I may not be able to sufficiently express it here due to my limited vocabulary.

I am indebted beyond measure to my guide Prof. (Dr.) A. A. Mohamed Hatha, Department of Marine Biology, Microbiology and Biochemistry, School of Marine Sciences, for his unfailing guidance, valuable suggestions, critical assessment and the careful scrutiny of the manuscript. I will never forget the immense love and motivation you have put up on me, and you never know how special I felt after our conversations. You have inspired me like no other.

I am thankful to the Prof. (Dr.) C. T. Aravindakumar, Director of School of Environmental Sciences, for providing the facilities and support thereby making the department a better place to work.

I owe a debt of gratitude to my teacher Prof. (Dr.) A. P Thomas, Director, Advanced Centre of Environmental Studies and Sustainable Development (ACESSD), for all that he has done for me. Dear teacher, you are one among a million, who have a big heart and a burning desire inside to make this world a better place for everybody. You have always made us wonderstruck, with your selflessness and tireless noble acts. The lessons learned from you are full of wisdom and kindness.

Dr. E. V. Ramasamy, Associate Professor, School of Environmental sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, is one of the best teachers that I have had in my life. He sets high standards for his students and he encourages and guides us to meet those standards. He was such a big bundle of motivation and love.
I gratefully acknowledge my indebtedness to Dr. Mahesh Mohan, Assistant Professor, School of Environmental Sciences, for his advice, valuable suggestions and constant encouragement. He is a miracle man who has answer to every question being asked. He was a big motivation in terms of constant hard work and high energy. Many a times his advises helped me academically and personally.

Dr. Sylas V. P, Assistant Professor, School of Environmental Sciences, is thankfully remembered for the constant encouragement. Dr. Usha K. Aravind, my teacher is gratefully acknowledged at this moment. The care and friendship delivered by Mrs. Padma P, Guest Lecturer, School of Environmental Sciences, cannot be contained in words.

Other faculties of the department including the Guest Lecturers Dr John C Mathew, Dr. Harsha H T and Ms. Anuthara R, are also gratefully acknowledged.

I take this time to remember Late Dr. R. Satheesh and Late Dr. K. Sankaran Unni, my teachers and wisdom that shaped my destiny.

I thank my teacher Dr. T.V. Murali Vallabhan, visiting professor, School of Environmental Sciences for his love, care and more importantly the wisdom he shared. You always touched my soul with the melody of music in poems recited and the fantastic classes which stole the consciousness from the materialistic world.

Prof. (Dr.) J. M. Julka, from Shoolini University, Himachal Pradesh is remembered with gratitude, for all the love and care showered. Despite being a brilliant teacher, he is a good human with a bundle of energy. Thank you so much for the tin-tin and extra sweets.

I acknowledge the financial support of DoECC, Government of Kerala, in the form of Paristhithi-Poshini Fellowship. I also take this opportunity to acknowledge KSCSTE, Government of Kerala for the honor in the form of “Young Scientist Award” in the 21st Kerala Science Congress held at Kollam.

I am indebted to Dr. Ancy Joseph, Retd. Professor, BK College, Amalagiri, for the help she extended and the precious time she spend explaining the statistical interpretations.

My teachers Adv. Somanathan Nair and Dr Ramesh B Nair are also fondly remembered at this moment for the love and care extended.

Ms Savitri Roshan, is warmheartedly remembered for the love she expressed during the classes on Zotero at her home. She is such a brilliant teacher I have ever seen. I also take this opportunity to thank Mr. Magesh Kumar and Mr. Jasim, from the M.G university library for the knowledge they shared.

I cannot forget the Zen wisdom shared by Mr. Sajit K D, along with his better half Anita Sajit for the care and comfort, when I needed it at the most.

I deeply acknowledge the elderly care and close friendship shared by my lifetime friends Dr. Rinoy Varghese, Dr. Abhirosh Chandran, Dr. Ajaya Kumar B
Dr. Joshy George, Dr. Rejith PG, Dr. Prasanth Narayan, Dr. K. K. Jayasoorya, Ms. Sowmya M, Ms. Indu M N and Ms. Pheba Joseph. I cannot forget the jokes we cracked, and the hundreds of debates we were dragged into.

The unaccountable love of my dearest classmates Nyrsa Habeeb, Shylesh Chandran MS, Girija Rani VH and Rinisha Nishanth cannot be explained in words. Many friends have helped me stay sane through these difficult years. Their support and care helped me overcome setbacks and stay focused on research. I greatly value their friendship and I deeply appreciate their belief in me.

It was wonderful working with my dearly loved kid brothers, Sajith Kumar KJ, Arun Sasi, Rahul K, Abdul Shukoor, Bineesh MB, Gopi Krishnan, Balu Balachandran, Shathrumentra, Praveen, John Richard, Toms Augustine, Arun Babu, Kannan, Dinu Kuriakose, Joice K Joseph, Dr. Ramesh and Abin Varghese. Without your frank, humorous talks, my troubles and tensions would not have been eased.

Similarly my little sisters Dr. Asha Rose Victor, Raisa Kabeer, Anju Abbas, Minimol K M, Sneha Mathew, Sruthy Shini, Sruthy S, Krishna, Jerry, Dania M Thomas, Ambily, Sethu Lekshmi Bhai, Navya Cherian, Neethu, Linu Babu, Jesmi Mujeeb, Shamily, Mahalaxmi Iyer are all fondly remembered with love.

I record my sincere thanks to my dear Madhavan Kutty Achan for his encouragement and support. When I was distracted from the aim, he taught me the lessons on the importance of doing Karma.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my far away friend, Mr. Felix Landstatter, Associate Professor, Department of Psychology, Instituto de Empresa University, Segovia, Spain, for all the help he extended from Spain. My friend in research gate, Dr. Rebecca J Gast (Becky), Associate Scientist, Department of biology, Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution, Woods Hole, MA USA, is fondly remembered for the sincere help she extended in explaining the cluster analysis.

I extend my gratitude to Dr. Vinodh Kumar Rajendran, Senior Scientist, Division of Epidemiology, Indian Veterinary Research Institute, Izatnagar, Bareilly, Uttar Pradesh, for all he help, friendship and inspiration showered.

I greatly acknowledge the help extended by Ms. Binu, Mr. Mohit, Ms. Sowmya KR, Mr Jasim Basheer and Mr. Renjith, School of Biosciences, MG University, Kottayam, Kerala. I also thank Reshma Silvester and Deborah Gnana Selvam Alexander from SMS, CUSAT for the help they extended.

Ms. Jasmine and Ms. Meera Santhosh are all fondly remembered for the care and encouragement showered.

The list is never complete without remembering those days with the roommates and members of the tabernacle where I stayed as a paying guest. The love showered by Anji, Vinny, Asha Kuttappan, Aparna, Merlin, Seli Chechi, Deenamma chechi, Deepthi chichi, Aiswarya, Valsalamma, Babu chettan, Appooppan and Ammumma is remembered with nostalgia. I can still feel the warmth of those sweet and funny days which lasted for a year and more. Those were the days I stepped in to the research.
I also take this opportunity to thank the life time friends of mine especially Chalson Paul, Sreejith, Lubna, Chithra and Arathy. Time may change, but we will not. Dear Chalsu are Sree, I cannot remember the motivation you both showered without tears.

Most importantly, none of this would have been possible without the love and patience of my family. My immediate family, to whom this dissertation is dedicated to, has been a constant source of love, concern, support and strength all these years. I would like to express my heart-felt gratitude to the family for the deep rooted generosity and understanding.

I bow before the memories of my dear “Beenamma” who always encouraged me like no other. My father, Late N. G. Raveendran Nair, is fondly remembered at this moment. I also bow before the sweet memories of my great grandmother, Late Lakshmikutti Amma and my ever loved grandfather Bhaskaran achachan.

Last but not least I thank the almighty for his continuous help to complete this thesis. Without him I am nothing and with him I am everything. He is my Teacher and self-sufficient provider. Thank you so much for being with me.
