

Acknowledgment

I take this opportunity to appreciate and acknowledge the free hand given to me in developing my ideas during the course of the research work by my supervisor Dr. Girish Kumar R. I owe my heartfelt gratitude to him for the shower of kindness and patience shown to me in supervising the work and guiding me throughout despite his busy academic schedule.

I am indebted to Prof. A. M. Thomas, Director, School of International Relations and Politics, Mahatma Gandhi University for the encouragement and help extended to me during the course of this work for its completion in time.

My sincere gratitude is due to Prof. Raju Thadikkaran and Prof. K. M. Sethi, former Directors, School of International Relations and Politics, Mahatma Gandhi University for their inspiration and help and support extended to me during the various stages of my research work.

I express my sincere gratitude and appreciation for the guidance and timely advice given to me by Sri. Harsha Vardhan Singh, former Deputy Director General at WTO, who has been an insider to the India-WTO talks, and Economic Advisor and Secretary of TRAI. The valuable suggestions and inputs given by him during our discussion have helped me greatly to understand the Indian telecom liberalization.

I take this opportunity to thank Mr. P. K. Reghunath, Operator, DoT/BSNL (Retired), several other officials of DoT era of Kerala Telecommunications, DoT Cell of Kerala Telecommunications, Trivandrum and Mr. Viswam Mathew, Research Scholar, School of International Relations and Politics for their support and inspirational thoughts.

I express my sincere thanks to all staff members in the Library, School of International Relations and Politics, Mahatma Gandhi University; Central Library, Mahatma Gandhi University; The Library of the School of Management Studies, CUSAT and the Library at the Regional Telecom Training Institute (RTTC) of BSNL Kerala, Kaimanam, Thiruvananthapuram.

I extend my sincere thanks to my parents and friends for their love and support. I acknowledge the help and support extended by my wife Agnes Deepa Xavier, HSST (Jr.) St. Sebastian HSS, Palluruthy, Ernakulam and my little sons Arav Alphin M and Aron Malayil S.

Above all, I am grateful to the Almighty God for giving me the strength for accomplishing this mission.

Sebastian A. Mathew
