I wish to record my immense gratitude to my supervising teacher, Dr. Joy Joseph Puthussery, Principal, Bharata Mata College, Thrikkakara, for his guidance and inspiration throughout the preparation of the thesis.

I am immensely obliged to record my profound sense of gratitude to Dr. Mani K.P, Professor and Head, Department of Economics, University of Calicut, for his valuable advice during the preparation of the thesis.

I am heavily indebted and grateful to Dr. Santhosh Kumar S, Associate Professor, P.G and Research Department of Commerce, St. Peter’s College, Kolenchery, for his constructive suggestions, scholarly guidance and incessant persuasion throughout the preparation of the thesis.

I am thankful to Prof. Antony D. Parackal, Head of the Post Graduate Department of Commerce and Research Centre, Bharata Mata College, Thrikkakara for permitting me to undertake the research work in the department and for all the facilities and help given to me. I am also grateful to Sri. Varghese Augustine, Office Superindent, Sri. Ambrose P.J, Sri. Polly K.V and all other staff members of the office, Bharata Mata College, Thrikkakara, for the help I sought from them. I am immensely grateful to Dr. Sunanda C, for her sincere and valuable help in the processing of the primary data and the application of statistical tools for the study.

I extend my thanks to Sri. C. V. Jacob, Manager and Dr. Thampy Abraham, Principal, St Peter’s College, Kolenchery and to Prof. Joy C. George and Prof. Joy K. Paul, former Principals. Sincere thanks are also recorded for all the help received from the staff members of the office, with special mention of Sri. Joy Joseph, St Peter’s College, Kolenchery. I am thankful to Prof. Heleny M.Y, Head of P.G and Research Department of Commerce and former head of the department Sri. Jory Mathai, St. Peter’s College, Kolenchery, for all the facilities and help given to me. I am also thankful to all other faculty members of the P.G and Research Department of Commerce, St. Peter’s College, Kolenchery, for the encouragement given to me for the completion of the work.

I remember with gratitude the Director, Sri. Keshvendra Kumar I.A.S., and the staff, Sri. Ramesan P. and Sri. Vedavyasan, of the Directorate of Higher Secondary School Education for all the valuable help extended to me in the collection of the primary as well as the secondary data. No other moment would be more appropriate to place on record my sincere gratitude to Sri. A. Mohana Kumar, Former Additional Secretary, Higher Education Department, Government of Kerala, Thiruvananthapuram for his whole hearted support and help throughout the work.

I remember with gratitude, all the Principals and Managers of various higher secondary schools of the state of Kerala, for their valuable opinions, suggestions and clarifications on various aspects of the study and for permitting me for collecting primary data from the teachers and students of the schools, selected as samples, and to have access to the school records. I extend my sincere thanks to the teachers and students of various higher secondary schools from were I collected data for the requirement of the thesis and I gratefully remember the higher secondary school teachers Sri. Gokulnath A. (HSST, GHSS, Anamangad) Smt. Shiney G. (HSST, GHSS, Poothrikka), Smt. Sabitha S. (HSST, GHSS, Thripunithura), Smt. Suma M. (HSST, MSPHSS, Malappuram) and Sri. Vasudevan (HSST, GHSS, Edapally), for their valuable help.

I am also indebted to Dr. V.K. Anil Kumar, Information and Documentation Officer and other office staff of the Centre for Development Studies, Thiruvananthapuram, for their help and assistance. I gratefully remember the help extended to me by Sri. Eldhose Kurialakose in data entry. I specially record my gratitude to Prof. Jayalakshmi T.C, Former HOD of English, St. Xavier’s College, Aluva, for the meticulous reading and improvement of the text of the thesis into its present form.

I gratefully remember my husband Sri. V. Ajith Narayanan, my children A.K. Sooraj Viswam and A.K. Vivek Viswam and my father Sri. C. Sukumar, my mother
Smt. K. Rema Devi, Sri V. Viswanatha Menon, my father in law and Smt. K., Prabhavathi Menon, my mother in law, for their encouragement, cooperation and help throughout the work. I also remember with thanks my brother, Sri. Sreekumar K.S. and also my cousins Sri. M. Mohanan and Smt. M. Rema.

I also extend my thanks to Indus Photos printers for binding the thesis.

Above all, I record my deep devotion and respect to the all mighty God for enabling me the successful completion of this work.

Sreeja Sukumar K.