First and foremost I express my profound gratitude to the Almighty God who provided me the ability and insight to complete the thesis.

I would like to convey my deep sense of appreciation and gratitude to my supervisor Dr. D. Radhakrishnan Nair for motivating and guiding me towards research work. I offer my sincere gratitude to him, who has supported me throughout my thesis with his patience and knowledge whilst allowing me the room to work in my own way.

I express my heartfelt thanks to Dr. Winny Varghese, Secretary, MA College Association and Dr. Leena George, Principal, M. A. College, Kothamangalam for all the help and encouragement. I am deeply obliged to Prof. Paul Mathew, Head of the Department of English for providing an excellent research environment at MG University Research Centre in English.

I wish to express my special thanks to my children, Sumish and Savana who lent me a share of their precious time for completion of this work. I extend my deepest gratitude to my life partner, Dr. Sushan P.K., for the love and care that sustained me when the stress and anxiety that naturally accompanies the completion of a research project threatened to overwhelm me.

I want to thank my mother for her unconditioned love and confidence. This thesis is dedicated to the memory of my father who always wanted the best for his daughter. Thank you for initiating me into the world of language and literature and helping me realize my dreams.
