ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all I must express my gratitude to the management of Anjalai Ammal Mahalingam Engineering College, Tiruvarur who gave this opportunity not only to start my research work and also for providing continues support. I owe my gratitude to all those people who have made this dissertation possible because of whom my research experience has been one that I will cherish forever.

My heartfelt gratitude is to my supervisor, Dr.T.K.Mahendra Babu. I have been amazingly fortunate to have a guide who gave me the freedom to explore on my own and at the same time the guidance to recover when my steps faltered. His patience and support helped me overcome many crisis situations and finish this dissertation. My Joint-supervisor, Dr.P Balamurugan, has been always there to listen and give advice am grateful to him for holding me to a high research standard and for his friendly approach which made me to think seamlessly and enrich my research.

I would like to express my heart-felt gratitude to all my family members, especially my beloved late father to whom this dissertation is dedicated to, have been a constant source of love, patience, concern, support and strength all these years. I would like to express my heart-felt gratitude to my family. Finally, my greatest regards to the Almighty and my Gurudev for bestowing upon me the courage to face the complexities of life and complete this project successfully.
