“Dedicated to the struggles of those people who are sacrificing their life for the protection and preservation of all living beings created by God; thereby foresee a greedless society and prosperous earth created through sustainable development”.