ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my Supervising Teacher, Dr. K.P. Suresh, Associate Professor, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam for his constant encouragement, incessant guidance and support rendered during all the stages of the present study. The study would not have been possible without his help and suggestions and the encouraging words showered upon me in completing the study in the present format.

I express my profound thanks to Prof.(Dr) A. Sudharma, former Director and Dean, Faculty of Education, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam for her encouragement extended during the period of my study. Let me thank Prof.(Dr.)T. V. Thulasidharan, Director, School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University for his support and the facilities of the Department made available to me during the final stage of the study. I take this opportunity to thank all other faculty members of the School of Pedagogical Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University who were helpful in every possible way to complete this study.

I am very grateful to Prof. (Dr.) V. Sumagala, Retd. Professor and Head, Department of Education, University of Calicut, for her interest and valuable helps extended throughout the course of this study.

I am thankful to the Headmasters, teachers and students of the various secondary schools for their whole hearted co-operation ensured in the collection of data.
My sincere thanks and gratitude are also due to Dr. C.T. Aravindakumar (Professor & Director, School of Environmental Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam); Prof. K.P. Joy (Former Director, School of Environmental Sciences, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam) and Dr. A. P. Thomas (Director, Advanced centre of Environmental Studies and Sustainable Development, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam.) who were gracious enough to extend their time and expertise in the interview schedules held with them as part of the present investigation.

I cannot forget my colleagues at UCTE, Pathanamthitta who were supportive throughout the whole process of this study.

Last but not least, I would like to endorse my profound thanks to my husband Mr. N. Thulaseedharan and my son Yedu T. Dharan for their love, support and encouragement showered upon me right from the embryonic stage of carrying out the present study.

Above all, I am thankful to the God Almighty, for his abounding grace showered on me in completing this study.
