ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to Swami Tanmayanandaji Maharaj, secretary, Sri Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya, Coimbatore for the blessings that he bestowed upon me for the success of my venture.

I am very much indebted to Dr. G. Lokanadha Reddy, Senior Lecturer, Department of Education, Alagappa University, Karaikudi, Tamilnadu without whose sustained guidance, encouragements and inspiration, this thesis would have never come out in this format.

I am highly indebted to Dr. S. Mohan, Professor and Head, Department of Education, Alagappa University, Karaikudi for providing necessary facilities in the department to carryout the present investigation. I also express my thanks to the Facutly and non-teaching staff of the same Department for their assistance and co-operation to complete this research work.

I record my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. M.N.G. Mani, Principal, Sri Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya College of Education, Coimbatore for his invaluable suggestions towards the selection of the area for this thesis. His keen interest in the present study, has been a great source of inspiration to me. I am equally indebted to Mr. V.P. Palaniappan, Co-ordinator, Department of Extension services and Mr. G. V. Ramakrishnan, Lecturer in Physical Science of the same Institution for their kind co-operation in successfully completing this thesis.
I am ever thankful to Dr. N. Balasubramaniam, Senior Lecturer, Department of Educational Technology, Bharathiar University Coimbatore, Dr. Venkataiah, Dean and Faculty of Education, University of Mysore, Mysore, and Dr. Padmanabaiah, Professor and Head, Department of Education, S V University Thirupathi for their kind encouragements, inspirations and suggestions in successfully completing this thesis.

My sincere thanks are due to Dr. Sathyavathi, Professor and Head, Department of Education, Sri Padmavathi Mahila Viswa Vidyalayam, Thirupathi, and Dr. Kusuma, Senior Lecturer of the same Department for their valuable suggestions to enhance the methodology of this study.

I would like to thank R. Ramar, Headmaster, S S Hindu Nadar Higher Secondary School, Muhavur and P. Janakkumar of the same school who helped me to bring this project to fruition.

I also owe a great deal to all the Heads of the Schools who were very kind enough and encouraging for permitting me to collect the required data from their schools. I am equally grateful to the Special Educators and Visually impaired students for their invaluable co-operation and enthusiastic response in data collection.

Finally, it is customary to acknowledge the long-suffering patience of one’s spouse and children. In my case, this acknowledgement is especially appropriate to my wife, V. Vanitha, M.E., she not only read and commented on every word but also provided technical assistance to design tool for this study.
