ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my deep sense of gratitude to all those who helped me in the stupendous task of completing this research project. I have received help from so many people that it is my moral duty to mention all their names, but I refrain from doing so as it would make a formidable list. Nevertheless I am bound to convey my sincere and deep indebtedness to the following persons without whose help and encouragement the present research work would not have seen the light of the day.

I express my profound sense of gratitude to Dr. (Mrs.) Radha Thiagarajan. The first Vice-chancellor of Alagappa University, Karaikudi for graciously permitting me to undertake this research work. I am extremely thankful to Dr. P. Ramasamy, Vice-chancellor, Alagappa University who has been a great source of inspiration to me for the successful completion of the present research project.

It is my pleasant privilege and good fortune to have done my research work under the able and enthusiastic guidance of my respected professor and guide Dr. R. Neelamegam, Professor and Head, Department of corporate secretaryship, Alagappa University. Words fail to express my deep sense of gratitude to my professor from whom I received unstinting guidance and supervision par excellence, at all stages of this study. I overtly salute my guide for his humanistic approach and brotherly affection. I am indeed indebted to him immensely.

I am bound to express my hearty thanks to Dr. M. Selvam, Reader, Department of Commerce, Alagappa University and Dr. M. Renganathan Reader, Department of Commerce, Madras University, from whom I had the privilege of getting good amount of help with regard to the conceptual, methodological and statistical parts of the present investigation.
I owe a special debt of gratitude to Mr. S.S. Chawla, Senior Advisor for NRIs, Indian Investment Centre, New Delhi and Mr. M. Velmurugan, Deputy Director, Tamil Nadu Industrial guidance and Export promotion Bureau, who gave ungrudgingly all the necessary data for the study at their disposal.

I am indebted to the officials of the Reserve Bank of India, Madras and officials of various nodal agencies for NRIs in various States, and the librarians of different Universities for their help and sincere co-operation that made the task complete and comprehensive.

I should specifically thank Dr. M.S. Udayamoorthy, Dr. Palani Periasamy and a host of other NRI industrialists in Tamil Nadu who spared their precious time to give elaborate interviews and patiently fill up the questionnaires.

I am highly thankful to Dr. D. Amarchand, Professor and Head, Department of Commerce, Madras University, Dr. N. Thanulingom, Professor and Head, Department of Commerce, Madurai Kamaraj University, Dr. S. Mohan, Professor and Head, Department of Education and Dr. R. Krishnaraj, Reader, Department of Education, Alagappa University, and a galaxy of other academic dignitories for their valuable contribution.

I express my sincere gratitude to my colleagues in the Department of Corporate Secretaryship, who were a constant source of encouragement and support.

I am thankful to the Registrar, Deputy Registrar and Librarian Sri. S. Jayaraman of Alagappa University, for their gracious help in this study.

I thank M/S. KPSV Computers, Karaikudi for their outstanding workmanship evinced in executing my research report.
The love and affection shown by my family members and friends have been a source of inspiration throughout the work. I thank all of them.

I firmly believe that it is only the Benediction of Lord Muruga that has helped me to fulfil this endeavour.

P.K. MUTHAPPAN
