ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The research scholar expresses his sincere gratitude and appreciation to Dr. M.N. Patel, Vice Chancellor, Gujarat University, Ahmedabad, Gujarat, India for providing an opportunity to work on this study.

The scholar feels highly privileged to have worked under the supervision of Dr. Dharmashih B. Desai, who is a constant source of inspiration. His enlightened guidance, constructive criticism, untiring help, counseling and suggestions have ensured that the research study progress in right direction and perspective, throughout the pursuance of the study.

Sincere gratitude is expressed to Dr. N J Chaniyara, for their valuable suggestions on various aspects of this study. Their motivation and commitment ensured excellence in the entire process of this study.

Heartfelt thanks are expressed by the scholar to Miss Neeta Chauhan and Dr. Yajuvendrasinh Jethwa for their cooperation for this study.
The scholar cannot proceed further unless he acknowledges with thanks, the supports of the students from Shree Swaminarayan Arts College, Ahmedabad, who voluntarily participate in the study as subjects, without their cooperation the experiment and collection of data would not have possible.

Sincere thanks are also due to library staffs of Gujarat University, Ahmedabad, Mahemdavad and H.L. College of commerce, for providing necessary literature and materials for study time to time.

Finally, the scholar would like to place on record his sincere gratitude and thanks to Research degree Committee Gujarat University for the Opportunity to take up the study.

(P.D.M)