ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The investigator is indeed, indebted to acknowledge his immense gratitude to his guide Dr. S. HERBERT BASKARAN, Reader, Alagappa University College of Education, for his unstinting guidance, par excellence, throughout the career of his investigation.

To Dr. S. MOHAN, Professor & Head, Department of Education, Alagappa University, a dynamic force behind all vibrant activities in the domain of educational research, the researcher owes a lot of thanks for his precious and timely suggestions for the methodological issues in general and for the statistical techniques in the data analysis in particular.

Dr. S. LAKSHMI, Former Vice-Chancellor, Mother Teresa University, Kodaikanal, really deserves much encomiums from the researcher since it was she who was instrumental in giving shape to this dissertation.

The investigator is very much grateful to Dr. P. S. BALASUBRAMANIAN, Prof. Emeritus, Department of Education, University of Madras, from whom the researcher had the privilege of getting good amount of help with regard to the conceptual, methodological and statistical parts of the present investigation.

The investigator's whole-hearted special thanks are due to Professors, Dr. P. PREMA and Dr. R. KRISHNARAJ and Reader, Dr. G. LOGANATHA REDDY, Department of Education, Alagappa University, Karaikudi for their constant encouragement and timely ideas in the progress of the research work.

The researcher expresses his heart-felt thanks to Mr. P. PAUL DEVANESAN, S.G. Lecturer, for having helped in Tool Construction, Questionnaire preparation and Data analysis for the research. It was he who was behind the quality of this research.

The researcher expresses his thanks to Prof. Dr. S. CHANDRA SEKARAN, Principal, Prof. C. R. VASANTHA, Dr. M. SOLAIYAN, Reader, Dr. V. S. S. KANNAN, Reader, Dr. ARUJUNAN, Reader, Dr. P. SIVAKUMAR, Senior Lecturer, Dr. G. KALIYARASAN, Senior Lecturer, Mr. N. ARUNACHALAM, Lecturer, Dr. I. MUTHUSAMY, Lecturer, Mr. BASKARAN, Arts & Craft Instructor and Mr. BALU, Lecturer all from College of Education for their help in the progress of this research.

The researcher expresses his thanks to Dr. B. DHARMALINGAM, Lecturer, Department of Women’s Studies, who offered enough resource materials on human rights education, Dr. I. DEVASAHYAM, Associate Director (Hon) – Institute of Human Rights Education and Dr. HENRI TIPHAGNE, Director, People’s Watch – Tamilnadu, Madurai – 02, who offered enough resource materials on Human Rights and rendered his help in framing the questionnaire to collect data for the research.

The investigator expresses his thanks to Mr. V. KARUNANITHY, M.Com., B.L., Advocate, Karaikudi, Mr. M. NATESAN, Lecturer, Department of Tamil, Alagappa University, Karaikudi, for having rendered help in guest lectures to the experimental subjects. He also thanks Mr. VINOTH, Lecturer in English, Alagappa Govt. Arts College, Karaikudi and Mr. M. BALASUBRAMANIAN, Senior Lecturer in DIET, Tirunelveli for their timely helps.

The researcher thanks the principals, headmasters and teachers of higher secondary and secondary schools located in and around Karaikudi for their kind co-operation in obtaining the required data for the present research.
The research conveys his special thanks to the headmaster and teachers of Government Higher Secondary School, Ariyakudi and Thanjavoor Arunachalam Chettiar Government Higher Secondary School, Kottaiyur, for permitting the researcher to conduct the experiment.

His thanks are due to Dr. Jeyaraman the Alagappa University Central Librarians and other Liberians of Madurai Kamaraj University, Manomaniam Sundaranar University, University of Madras and British Council Library for supplying necessary materials for the review of related literature study.

He also expresses his heartfelt thanks to V. Ramarajapandian, T. Kannan, S. A. Muralikrishan, K. Saminathan, M. Chandran, A. Chandrakumar, G. Parthipan, M. Raju, P. Gurusamy, S. Senthilkumar, S. Durga Nagarajan and P. Rajavel, who rendered their helping hands in the process of the research.

He also records his gratitude to Mr. K. R. Dhanapal and Mr. Al. Natraj, Non-Teaching Staff of the Department of Education, for their support and encouragement.

Finally the scholar extends his hearty thanks to his parents and members of his family.

The investigator whole – heartedly thanks Mr. S. Kannan, Karpagam Computers, Karaikudi who devoted hours of hard efforts in typing this thesis day and night and Mr. C. Paulraj, Nagamalai, Madurai – 19 who took much pains in analyzing the data with SPSS Package. His thanks go to Mr. Sethu, Proprietor, Elango Press, Karaikudi for his excellent and exemplary works in binding these dissertation copies.

(A. Selvan)