Acknowledgement

All praise is to the Almighty Allah (SWT) the most Benevolent, the most Merciful and peace and blessings be upon his messenger Muhammad (SAW), his family and companions. He guided me and gave me the strength, resources and spiritual capability to get through all barriers and troubles and reach to this stage of my life. The journey of Ph.D. is very different with unpredictable ups and downs. Getting a shaped final thesis is a team effort with so many supportive hands at personal and professional level. It is my immense pleasure to acknowledge all those people who directly or indirectly are a part of successful accomplishment of this task.

First and foremost I would like to express my sincere and profound gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Moinuddin for his encouragement and invaluable support during my entire Ph.D. study. His easy going nature, positive attitude, patience and motivation made the completion of this journey possible. His guidance helped me to combat the difficult phases of my research and thesis writing. He assisted me patiently in every possible way that I have asked for. He encouraged me to participate in conferences, symposia and workshops in India and abroad. I could not have imagined having a better advisor and mentor for my Ph.D. study. Besides, as a Chairperson of the department he is worth acknowledging for arranging all infrastructure and instrumentation needed for smooth running of experiments.

My sincere gratitude to Prof. Asif Ali and Prof. Khursheed Alam for their valuable suggestions, motivation and constructive criticism. I always received a great help for chemicals and instruments from them. I owe my heartiest thanks to other teachers of the department Prof. Mashiatullah Siddiqui, Prof. Najmul Islam, Prof. Khushtar A. Salman, Prof. Shagufta Moin, Dr. Abul Faiz Faizy, Dr. Safia Habib, Dr. Sufia Naseem and Dr. Akif Ahsan. I am highly thankful to Dr. Zarina Arif for her encouragement, guidance and support.

I extend huge and warm thanks to my senior Dr. Abdul Rouf Mir for his distinguished help and support, especially in writing of papers. He always took the pain of editing and refining my papers. His support and guidance was no doubt vital for the success of my thesis. I cannot forget to acknowledge my senior Dr. Mir Yasir Arafat who helped me with my basics and made me acquainted with instrument handling. His constructive criticism and encouragement motivated me to stand during downfalls. I am so lucky to have Dr. Farzana Khan as my senior and friend. Her ready to help attitude is worth appreciation. She allowed me to take help from her anywhere and anytime. I would also like to mention here Dr. Shafique Ahmad and Dr. Wasil Hasan, who proved to be very supportive seniors as they guided me through their valuable and timely suggestions. I am extremely grateful to my labmates Irfan, Minhal, Sana, Aasha, Masoom, Talha, Mustafa and Shifa for creating a friendly and humorous working environment in the lab. Their unconditional support and co-operation really helped in making this journey comfortable and easy. I am grateful to my juniors Adnan, Faiza, Arif, Asim, Shireen Islam, Akhlas, Somaiya Mateen, Sumayya Shahzad, Sadaf, Vibhav, Shahida, Shireen Salah, Phari, Shoaib, Priyam for their help, support, care and respect. I cannot forget the role of my friend Asif Zaman in making my thesis a success. His humorous nature always lightened the mood even in the most difficult times. He always accompanied and helped me in handling of animals, that was really a tough task alone. I sincerely acknowledge the help and support from my friends Masih uz Zaman and Alok Raghav. They really boosted my confidence and helped me with their indispensable suggestions and advices from time to time.

I wish to extend my warm thanks to all the members of office staff, clinical laboratory and all other non teaching staff for their invaluable help and support. Special thanks to Mr. Faisal, Mrs. Huma, Mr. Nasir, Mr. Faizan, Mr. Ashfaq and Mr. Mujahid for being always helpful, supportive and kind. Due thanks to Raju Bhai and Yoginder Bhai for providing a hygienic and clean environment essential for smooth running of experimental work.

Completion of Ph.D. was really not possible without two great friend-cum-sisters Naureen and Neelofar. They stood with me during all crests and troughs of the journey. They cared for me like their own sisters. Naureen was my batchmate since graduation, but it was during Ph.D. that our bond strengthened. She is the person who is always available for me. She celebrated my success and motivated me in tough times. I met Neelofar the day I took admission and gradually we became really good friends. She helped and supported me unconditionally both at professional and personal levels. Together the three of us shared great and wonderful moments.

I cannot skip mentioning my dear old friends Ayesha, Nida, Maryam and Amena. Each of them contributed in their own ways and helped me to get through the difficult phases of Ph.D. I feel blessed to have friends like Ishrat, Zeba, Ghazala and Saba for their unconditional love, help and support.

I feel short of words to express my gratitude to the two angels in my life Ammi and Papa. Their unconditional love, support and prayers happen to be the main reasons for my success. They stood for me like pillars and are my true strength. Their sacrifices for me are priceless and I pray to Allah to have mercy upon them as they shaped me up to what I am today. I am grateful to have wonderful siblings “Sumaira Islam” and “Anas Islam” and brother-in-law “Mr. Ata-ur-Rehman”. They always stood by me and supported me selflessly in the toughest situations. I am really lucky to have such a caring tayabbu who considers me like his own daughter. Besides, my grandparents deserve special mention for being caring and considerate, especially my nana (Late Mr. Sarfaraz Husain) who was a true inspiration for me. I cannot forget to mention my nana “Mr. Muazzam Ali Siddiqui” for being a great motivator always. Special thanks to all my mamu, mami, khala, phuppi and dear cousins. I owe an eternal gratitude to all my family members and relatives.

I would like to express my due thanks to University Grants Commission - Maulana Azad National Fellowship, New Delhi for providing great financial support in the form of fellowship and contingency grants, during the entire Ph.D. program. Lastly, I pay my deep homage to the founder of this university “Late Sir Syed Ahmad Khan”.
