Prima facie I am grateful to Almighty Allah for giving me strength, confidence and perseverance to carry out this thesis. Without His grace and mercy, I would have not been able to complete this task.

A special debt of gratitude is graciously extended to my supervisor Prof. A. H. M. Ahmad for continuous support of my Ph.D. work and research, for his patience, motivation, enthusiasm, and immense knowledge. His guidance helped me in all the time of research and writing of this thesis. His calmness and support helped me to overcome many tough situations and finish my thesis. It is with his supervision that this work comes into existence. I could not have imagined having a better advisor and mentor for my Ph.D. work.

I am indeed grateful to the Chairperson, Prof. Abu Talib and Prof. L.A.K. Rao and Prof. Mahshar Raza, ex-Chairperson, Department of Geology, for providing me with all the necessary facilities for the research. I am grateful to all of them for holding me to a high research standard and forcing strict validations for each research result.

I am also grateful to Prof. Abu Talib, Prof. Rashid Umar and Dr. M. Shamim Khan, Department of Geology, Aligarh Muslim University, for sharing their expertise and sincere and valuable guidance throughout my research and for their encouragement extended to me and Prof. Masroor Alam, Geology section, Civil Engineering Department, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, for giving his valuable suggestions and guidance at various stages of my research.

I wish to express my sincere thank to Dr. S. K. Ghosh and Dr. H. K. Sachan, Scientist-G, Wadia Institute of Himalayan Geology, Dehradun, for their critical help during the course of my research work.

Most importantly none of this would have been possible without the love and patience of my family. My immediate family, to whom this thesis is dedicated to, has been a constant source of love, concern, support and strength all these years. I would like to express my heart-felt gratitude to my father Late Saiyaed Parvez Alam who encouraged me in every endeavor of my life and at the same time guidance to recover when my step faltered. My mother Mrs. Khalida Parvez whose immense care, love and affection has boosted me morally and spiritually and my brothers Furquan Quasim, Aman Quasim, Noman Quasim and sister Munazza Parveen for their undying support and faith in me. My umpteen and extreme thanks are due to my wife, Mrs. Nazma Parveen for her care and support.

I would also like to convey my deep feeling of respect for my Dada (Late. Rafique Ahmad Siddiqui Sahab) and Nana (Shamimuddin Sahab). I wish to thank my entire extended family and my wonderful cousins.

I would like to express heartfull gratitude to my seniors and well wishers especially Dr. Sadique Ahmad, Osama Shamshi Bhai and Habib Bhai who have been always there to listen and advice. Their insightful comment and constructive criticism at different stages of my research were thought provoking and help me focus my ideas.

I owe special thanks to my fellow labmates Dr. Tavheed Khan, Dr. Shaista Khan, Dr. Roohi Irshad, Pavanesh Kumar Singh, Tapasya Singh, Asma anjead Ghaznavi, Zuhi Khan, Faiz Ahmad, Baqar Raza, Mohd Abdullah Ali Albaroot, Mohd Shadman and Sadia Khanam for their motivation, and for the stimulating discussions and for all the memorable works we had done together in all these years.

Furthermore I am thankful to my friends especially Faraz Ahmed, Mohd Amir, Intekhab Alam, Abdullah Masood Farooqui, Mashkoor Khan, Faheem Ahmad, Mujahid Ahmad, Javed Akhtar and Shavez. They have helped me stay sane through these difficult years. Their support and care helped me overcome setbacks and stay focused on my goal. I greatly value their friendship and I deeply appreciate their belief in me.

Looking back ten years since I came to Aligarh Muslim University, what an amazing journey it has been for me! Encompassing both good-times, that I will remember forever because it was plenty, and not-so-good times, yet I did not sway from my conscience, this transmogrified hike would not have been accomplished without tremendous help and support I gratefully received from my Alma Mater.

Finally I appreciate the financial support from UGC for providing me the UGC-BSR Fellowship for carrying out my research work.

I would also like to place on record, my sense of gratitude to one and all, who directly or indirectly, have lent their hand in this venture.
