ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This research has been quite a long journey, full of excitement and challenges. There were tens of personalities who stood by me with their support, encouragement, guidance and accompaniment. My gratitude is due to them and I am indebted to them forever.

At the outset, my most sincere thanks are to my supervisor Dr. G. Patrick, an erudite and exemplary scholar, for his guidance and accompaniment. It was he who, with his amiable patience and admonitions, made me complete the thesis, instilling in me the required self-confidence.

I am grateful to the former Head of the Department of Christian Studies, Professor Felix Wilfred for his inspirational presence and guidance in the initial stages of the research. It was he who suggested the field of study and encouraged me to go ahead.

I am deeply indebted to Bishop Antony Devotta, Bishop of Tiruchirappalli, for permitting me to do the research and supporting me financially.

I recount with gratitude the Study Circle meetings held in Asian Centre for Cross Cultural Studies (ACCS) at Panaiyur. I appreciate and thank the wonderful intellectual enlightenment and encouragement provided by Professor Felix Wilfred and Dr. G. Patrick and my fellow research scholars D.J. Margaret, N.G. Mathew, Ebinezer, Daniel, Praveen, Lotha, Sung Min Jung, Theola, Kochurani Abraham, C.J. Mathew, John Baptist, Xavier Arul Raj, Joe Francis, and Jerome. A sincere word of gratitude goes to Flora, Fatima and Banu for their hospitality, and assistance at ACCS.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to the other faculty members, Dr. Roy Lazar, Dr. Pushpa Joseph, Dr. Antony Sebastian and office staff of the Department of Christian Studies, Ms. Majella and Mr. Murthy.

I would like to place on record my gratitude to the staff members of libraries in the University of Madras, Sacred Heart Seminary, Poonamallee and St. Paul’s Seminary, Tiruchy. I would like to thank the Directors of the Pastoral Centres of the seventeen Catholic Dioceses of Tamilnadu and the other 170 parish priests, who helped me in taking the quantitative survey in their places. I am also grateful to all the 1729 respondents of the survey.
and those 50 who participated with great enthusiasm in the in-depth interviews.

I am greatly indebted to my friends N.G. Mathew, Ebenezer, Amos, Backia Regis, Louis Mathias, John Peter, Santiago Raja, Emmanuel Dasan, Sekar Sebastin, Victor Emmanuel, Josephraj and Jonswa for walking along the way with their care, wishes and prayers, always supporting, encouraging, directing and guiding.

My immense gratitude is due to Mr. Louis Manohar, Mr. Jesus Raja and the staff of Bosco Infotech, Yellagiri and Thirupathur for helping me in data-entry and statistical analysis. I am grateful to Deicy and Jenifer for helping me in typing the manuscripts.
