ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is an unique opportunity for me to pay, meekly and cordially, to acknowledge my thanks to all of them who directly or indirectly have provided me valuable guidance and cooperation in various manners.

First and foremost, I wish to acknowledge my deepest gratitude to my honorable Research Guide, Dr. Dinabandhu Mahal for all his valuable help and support during the period of this research work, he spent a lot of time to help, guide, discuss, and correct me whenever and wherever necessary, without which I would not have completed the research study.

I am highly grateful to related officials of Vaikunth Mehta National Institute of Co-operative Management, and more specifically to Director, Mr. B. Prasad, for giving me the opportunity to complete my research work in VAMNICOM centre, and helping and cooperating with me whenever necessary.

I also express my thanks to Dr. C. M. Chitale, Dean and Head of the Department of Management Sciences, for his continuous support and guidance, which was extended to me from time to time.

I highly thank the authorities of the Azad Islamic University in particular, Dr. Jasbi Chancellor of Central Branch and Dr. Noora Consultant of Chancellor and Mr. Janipur Chancellor of Gachsarn Branch that gave me such an opportunity to continue my further studies.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to the Managing Executives of the Small number of Companies, whose names has mentioned in the appendix of this study who responded generously to my request for data and answered my queries and gave valuable suggestions on various aspects of the subject of the thesis.

I am also indebted to the managers and personal of Jayakar Library, and Library of Department Science of the University of Pune, Library of Vaikuntha Mehta National Institute of Co-operative Management, British Library of Pune, and the Library of Dr. V.V. Patil Institute of cooperative Management, Pune, for their cooperation and assistance in providing all necessary materials, books, magazine, etc, as and when required.

I am also highly grateful to my near and dear friends Mr. Samadian and Mr. Rajabi for their sincere cooperation.

Last but not least, I am also thankful to my relatives and friends for helping me to complete the research study.

Thanks, once again

A. T. Beydokhti