ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

As the doctoral study comes to its conclusive close, a pleasant task remains to sit back and acknowledge the sincere efforts of all those who have helped me to make this thesis see the light of the day. At the outset, I am heartily thankful to Almighty God for blessing me with strength, dedication and patience to complete this work within the stipulated time besides creating an opportunity to conduct the study.

I take the opportunity to express my heartfelt adoration and gratefulness to my supervisor, Professor (Dr.) Anil Chandhok, Principal, M. M. Institute of Management, M.M. University, Mullana-Ambala for his unreserved guidance, constructive suggestions, thought provoking discussions and unabashed inspiration in nurturing this research work.

It is my profound privilege to express my deep sense of gratitude to Professor (Dr.) Amit Mittal, Ex-Principal, MMIM, MMU, Mullana-Ambala for suggesting to me this innovative research subject and for his priceless and sagacious guidance in steering me through many difficult moments in the conduct of this study. Words fail me in expressing my gratitude to him for having been a beacon of inspiration and guidance to me not only research study but also in my career.

I extend my sincere thanks to Ms. Ambika and Mr. Naveen, Management Graduates in collecting the primary data on which the findings of the research stand; and Mr. Sudhir Gupta, my brother and his family, who accompanied me during mall visits and interviewing mall managers, tenants and customers. Mr. Nitin, my cousin also supported in interviewing mall managers during exploratory research.

I am grateful to mall managers, retailers, customers and all the stakeholders for their valuable contribution in providing hands-on information about the happenings in the real world i.e. the shopping malls. I am also indebted to Mr Mohit Bajaj, Mall Manager, The Great India Place, Noida without whose cooperation helped understanding the current scenario in better way.

I am also thankful to Dr. Dimple Juneja, Ex-Director, TERII, Kurukshetra in providing her unabated support and recognition to research work. Dr. Roshan Lal, Director, Global Business School, Bilaspur also took keen interest in initiating the study.

iv
I would also like to put on record here my gratitude to Dr. Ruchika Wadhwa, Assistant Professor, MMIM, MMU, Mullana-Ambala and all the faculty members of the institute for their constant encouragement.

I am grateful to Dr. Tapesh Kiran who extended his kind co-operation and important guidelines on editing the work and providing necessary information indispensable for the present study.

I also owe my regards to my both parents, Sh. V. K. Gupta, father and Mrs. Kusum Gupta, mother for their understanding, care, support and encouragement by all means in making the study successful and sacrificed their comforts to help me achieve my academic goals.

I want to express my sincere thanks to all my friends, colleagues and all persons in the society who directly or indirectly contributed in providing valuable information related to research work. The research work would not have been completed with the ever available support of all my family members including Ms. Anu Garg, my sister, Ms. Arshya Garg, my niece and their family for keeping my morale high all the time.

I acknowledge wholehearted support extended to me during the entire duration of my project by all the persons who were directly or indirectly involved in my project.

Monika Gupta