ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to record my deep sense of gratitude and respect to my supervisor Dr. S. Mohanraj for his expert guidance and invaluable suggestions provided to me during the whole period of the research work. It was a real pleasure to work with him, always inspiring and encouraging, providing comments in a most insightful way. I would also like to thank Dr. Jayasree Mohanraj for her hospitality and encouragement, whenever I visited them for discussions and feedback.

A research work of this nature calls for co-operation from a number of people and offices. I have incurred debts to them in many ways. I would like to express my sincere thanks and gratefulness to:

- Prof. Pramod Talgeri, Vice-Chancellor, CIEFL, for his constant source of encouragement and permission to use whatever facilities available on the campus;

- Prof. Y. Sasikumar, Prof. Jacob Tharu and Prof. Robert Keiser for providing me with numerous insights and feedbacks each time I approached them;

- Dr. T.R. Khaniya, Dr. U.K. Silwal, Dr. S.K. Yadav and Ms. Jayanti Satyal for their official cooperation by providing me with data relevant to the present research;

- Mr. Govinda Raj Bhattarai, Mrs. Anjana Bhattarai and their children, Sewa and Richa for every co-operation extended to me and providing homely atmosphere whenever I visited them at the Doyens;

- Dr. Jay Raj Awasthi, Prof. Yogendra P. Yadav, Mr. Basu Dev Kafle, and Mr. Surendra Prasad Singh for suggesting and getting me registered at CIEFL as a research scholar, beside providing support and keeping up my spirits in many ways;

- Nanu Lal Shah, Pradeep Sharma, Jayssrinivasarao, Shruti, Swati, Sanjeev Chaudhary, Chandra Kant Jha, Shyamal Das, Pratima, and Mustafa, who have really been supportive to me in more than one way during my stay at CIEFL;

- Prem Kumar Singh for typing different series of questionnaire for the field work and Mr. Sankara Rao for typing the whole thesis with great care and patience and Mr. L.V. Raju for his help in printing the title page.
Mr. L.S. Ramaiah, the Librarian, and the staff of CIEFL Library, specially Satyanarayana, Sarojini, and Prabakar for helping me in locating books and reference materials whenever I approached them;

Yemenese friends Rafik Shamiry, Mohammed Mekhalafi and late Yeslam Salah Nasser for numerous discussions and interactions related to the study;

Sri Ram Suwal who was inexplicably supportive during my distress period when I lost my father and brother;

Tulasiman Duwal, the former Campus Chief of Sanothimi Campus, Kedar Bhakta Mathema, the former Vice-Chancellor of Tribhuvan University who granted me leave for the study;

the ELT experts at CIEFL, Osmania University, Tribhuvan University and Kathmandu University for sparing their valuable time and providing their expert comments for the refinement of the questionnaire at the first stage;

the English teachers at the +2 level in Nepal for participating in the questionnaire and informal interviews as well as the students, curriculum designers, policy makers and educational administrators who offered to participate in the interviews and discussions concerning the related issues;

Finally, I express my deep sense of love and appreciation for my youngest brother Sohan Chandra Mishra, who took care of financial matters during my long absence from home. I express my heart-felt love and appreciation for my wife, Neelam Mishra, for assuming the entire responsibility of looking after the children and managing the household during my long absence from Kathmandu. Her inspiration and understanding was highly supportive. With great love and affection, I thank my children Deep Shikha, Rup Shikha and Mannu who ungrudgingly endured with many an inconvenience in their studies caused by my stay at CIEFL. I owe much to them.

CIEFL,
HYDERABAD, INDIA

CHANDRESHWAR MISHRA