ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and Foremost, I would like to Thank GOD, for his blessings, which helped in passing through the path of this phase of life, very smoothly. I really feel he took me on shoulders in tough times! Thank You Babaji!

The work presented in this thesis would not have been possible without my close association with many people. I take this opportunity to extend my sincere gratitude and appreciation to all those who made this Ph.D. thesis possible.

It is my immense pleasure to express heartiest gratitude to Dr. Navita Nathani, Prestige Institute of Management Gwalior, under whose supervision; I carried out the present study. No words would suffice to express my deep sense of gratitude to my learned supervisor for her valuable guidance, constructive comments and suggestions. I really appreciate her willingness to meet me at short notice every time and going through several drafts of my thesis. I remain amazed that despite her busy schedule, she was able to go through the final draft of my thesis and meet me in less than a week with comments and suggestions on almost every page.

I am forever indebted to my academic Co- Supervisor Prof. Umesh Holani, Ex-Chairman, Dean, and Head, School of Studies in Commerce and Business Studies, Jiwaji University, Gwalior (M.P) for taking me under his wing. I will never forget his support and for providing me numerous opportunities to learn. He has routinely gone beyond his duties to fire fight my worries and concern and have worked to instill great confidence in both myself and my work. I am really thankful to him.

A special thanks to Prof. Yogesh Upadhayay (Dean & Head, School of Studies in Management, Jiwaji University) for his helpful nature that has always made me feel at ease with him and I could always look back on him for any support during my course of Ph.D. I would also like to thank him for his valuable comments and suggestions.

I would also like to acknowledge Prof. Suvijna Awasthi for all time support and wishes during the course of my research work.

A special thanks to Prof. C.P. Gupta (MFC, University of Delhi) for his all the fruitful discussions on the methodological approach in general. I am deeply indebted to him for all his efforts without time constraint.

My special gratitude is due to Prof. Naval Bajpai, Assistant Professor, ABV-IIITM, Gwalior, for his guidance in statistical methods. I would also like to extend my sincere gratitude to Prof. Sanjay Bhushan, DEI; Prof. Rohit Rajvanshi, DEI, for their valuable comments, which helped in improving the present work.
I would also like to extend my gratitude to Prof. Sanjeev Swami, HOD, Management, DEI, for extending his support for the completion of the present work.

I would like to acknowledge Dr. Garima Mathur for her valuable suggestions and encouragement to do this treatise. I am indebted by the support of my faculty members Dr. Richa Banerjee and Dr. Tarika Singh Sikarwar, Dr. Ravindra Pathak, Dr. Gaurav Jaiswal, Mr. Ram Paliwal, Dr. Vinod Bhatnagar which was required in tough times. Thank You Teachers!

I would like to extend my gratitude to University Grant Commission (UGC) for my Ph.D. through JRF scholarship program.

From Jiwaji University, I am grateful to all the administrative and academic staff for advice and support throughout my Ph.D. and especially to the Library Dept. for providing me the reading material.

PhD students often talk about loneliness during the course of their study but this is something which I never experienced at Jiwaji University. Heartfelt thanks to all my friends Mamta Verma, Aparna Singh, Pooja Sharma, Archana Dixit and Monika Jain not only for their support but also for being there to listen when I needed an ear.

A big “Thank you!” also goes out to Gaurav Sapra (Technical Analyst, University of Liverpool) who helped me online, through all the useful discussions and brainstorming sessions, especially during the difficult conceptual development stage.

Words cannot express the feelings I have for my parents and my in-laws for their constant unconditional support and All thanks to my parents who constantly kept my spirits high and boost up my morale, I would not be here if it is not for them.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge the most important person in my life – my husband Aditya. He has been a constant source of strength and inspiration. There were times during the years when everything seemed hopeless and I didn’t have any hope. I can honestly say that it was only his determination and constant encouragement that ultimately made it possible for me to see this project through to the end. Thank You Aditya!

Jaspreet Kaur