

Acknowledgement

The success of this work is owed to many people who helped me in various ways. I am deeply indebted and grateful to my supervisor, Professor Anil Boro, whose advice, guidance, suggestions, and extraordinary support at different stages of the writing made it possible for me to finish this work. The members of the faculty in the department of folklore research Gauhati university and guest faculties who have been excellent guides in the process of getting a clear focus to my work. Some good people who offered me support and encouragement. The staff and members of the K.K. Handique library for their cooperation and help. The librarian of Cotton College Dr Zabeen Ahmed for spurring me on with her help on getting access to the e resources in the library and her extra effort that she had put in to get material from other libraries. The staff and members of the library Cotton College who had catered to my erratic timings. To my young friend Dr Mridusmita Das, my colleague Dr Abanti Bharali, Dr Sanghamitra Sadhu and Dr Merry Baruah, I say a big thank you. Likewise, I wish to express my unmeasured gratitude to my parents and my younger sister, Lutfa Shireen Barbhuiyan for her encouragement. I also thank God for the strength and good health that he provided me during the period of my research and writing. This research would not have materialised without the support of my husband Syed Sajidur Rehman and my two little angels Zuhayr and Zaara for their love and companionship, their endurance, encouragement and support which has provided the ambience and greatly eased the tensions and frustrations involved in producing the work.
