

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page No.
INTRODUCTION	1-25
CHAPTER 1
Africa at a glance	26-57
1.1 African history	26
1.2 African literature	28
1.2.1 Oral literature
1.2.2 Precolonial literature
1.2.3 Colonial literature
1.2.4 Postcolonial literature
1.3 History of Nigeria	39
1.4 Nigerian literature	42
1.5. The post-colonial perspective: Issues on identity and nationalism	45
1.6 Commonwealth literature	47
1.7 Postmodernism as a postcolonial strategy	52
1.8 Definition of Folklore	53
1.9 Folklore in Literary Form	55
CHAPTER 2
Chinua Achebe: The Trailblazer	58-124
2.1 Chinua Achebe and his times	58
2.2 Things fall apart	62
2.2.1 Synopsis of the novel
2.2.2 Analysis of the novel
2.3 Language as identity marker	95
2.4 Anthills of Savannah	98
2.4.1 Synopsis of the novel
2.4.2 Proverbs
2.4.3 Storytelling
2.4.4 Myths and legends

2.4.5 Songs
2.4.6 Curses
2.4.7 Customs and traditions
2.4.8 Use of language
2.5 Achebe's issues on identity	116

CHAPTER 3

Chimamanda Adichie: The modern Chinua Achebe 125-182

3.1 The third generation author: A brief biographical sketch	125
3.1.1 Synopsis of the novel Purple Hibiscus
3.1.2 Adichie's use of language
3.1.3 Proverbs
3.1.4 Igbo Sayings
3.1.5 Folktales
3.1.6 Festivals
3.1.7 Ritual
3.2 Religious enculturation as a marker of identity	153
3.3 Half of a yellow sun	154
3.3.1 Synopsis of the novel
3.3.2 Folklore in Half of a yellow sun
3.3.3 Adichie's use of language
3.3.4 Folk belief and customs
3.3.5 Sorcery and witchcraft
3.3.6 Storytelling device as healing
3.4 Adichie's negotiating of identity	174

CHAPTER 4

Buchi Emcheta: Rewriting the Nation 183-231

4.1 A brief sketch of the life and works of Buchi Emcheta	183
4.2 Synopsis of the novel	188
4.2.1 Customs relating to Marriage
4.2.2 Fertility rites and customs
4.2.3 Childbirth and naming ceremonies.

4.2.4 Funeral rites and customs
4.2.5 Traditional medicine / Folk Medicine
4.2.6 Language as an identity marker
4.2.7 Sayings and proverbial expressions
4.2.8 Bilingualism
4.3 Emcheta's issues on Identity	206
4.4 Rape of Shavi	210
4.4.1 Synopsis of the novel
4.4.2 Emcheta's folklore
4.4.3 A brief analysis of the tribal life
4.5 Emcheta's negotiation of identity	229
CHAPTER 5
Ben Okri: Reality and its varied representations	232-299
5.1 Okri and his narrative art: Magic realism	232
5.2 A brief sketch of Okri's life and works	240
5.3 Synopsis of the Famished Road	246
5.3.1 Okri's use of folkloric devices in The Famished road
5.3.2 Purpose of Okri's use of indigenous belief system
5.4 Okri's consciousness	271
5.5 Infinite Riches	271
5.5.1 Synopsis of the novel
5.5.2 Magical realism in Infinite Rich
5.5.3 Rewriting of history
5.5.4 Stories in Infinite Riches
Conclusion	300-324
Bibliography	325-340