ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Before I get into the thick of the things I would like to add few heartful words for the people who were the part of the thesis in numerous ways people who gave unending support for the beginning.

From the inner core of my heart I would like to express my undying gratitude to Dr. Pradeep Kumar as well as the faculty member, staff member of J.J.T. University who graciously provide a wealth of invaluable guidance & during the course of the thesis which lead me to path of success & finally heartful appreciation to friends for reviewing the entire manuscript with painstaking attention for detail.
