Acknowledgements

It gives me immense pleasure and satisfaction in commemorating all the helping hands who have contributed significantly to make this work see light of the day. I am deeply indebted to my Ph.D. supervisor Dr. (Mrs.) Kiran Katoch who granted me a chance to benefit from her knowledge, experience and research motivation that enabled me to complete this work. Her active and insatiable attitude for research and strong advocacy for patient welfare and ‘bench to bedside’ philosophy has significantly motivated me and developed real insight and aptitude for research. She has guided and provided me a true platform to reach a place where I am capable of writing a Ph.D. thesis.

It has been a great privilege to work with my co-supervisor Dr. V.M. Katoch, Former secretary DHR & DG ICMR previously Director NJIL&OMD, Agra. He has provided me an opportunity to work in one of the most sophisticated laboratory of our country. He has mentored and guided me in many basic and advanced levels of research. His acumen and precision has influenced and improved me over the time. I fall short of words to express my gratitude to him.

It is my privilege and honor to express my deep gratitude to my co-supervisor Prof. GBKS Prasad, Jiwaji University, Gwalior. I am most lucky to have been impacted by his veteran guidance and constant encouragement without which the work described in this thesis would not have been possible.

I also acknowledge the help extended by other faculties of NJIL&OMD; Dr. V.D. Sharma & Dr. D.S. Chauhan, for their valuable cooperation and moral support. Dr. K Venkatesan, Dr. Deepa Bisht & Dr. Niramala Deo for their valuable support and help in many fronts. Dr. Ram Das (now at NIMR, New Delhi), Dr. Ajayveer Singh, Dr. Parthasarthy Mohanty and Dr.
H.B. Singh for their constructive suggestions and support during the course of this work. I am thankful to Dr. M Natarajan, Dr. Beenu Joshi, Dr K.K. Mohanty and Dr. Pushpa Gupta, for their moral support. Dr. U.D. Gupta, animal experimentation Laboratory for many useful discussions and allowing me to use animals and other facilities his laboratory. I also extend my heartfelt thanks to Dr. P.V.J. Reddy (now at SMS-MC Jaipur) for his suggestions in experiment design bioinformatics support and ever available help in statistics and genetics analysis. Scientific and stimulatory discussions with Dr. Babbanjee, Dr. Mradul Mohan, Mr. Mukesh and Mr. Sanjay Patel aided in maintaining scientific zeal.

I was gifted to have most extraordinary and distinguished seniors who not only set highest possible standards but selflessly accepted me in their hearts and our ever growing family at NJIL&OMD. Dr. Pushpendra Singh, Dr. Prashant Sharma and Dr. Pradeep Dagur were more than elder brothers to me at every step. Dr. Mradula Singh, Dr. Aradhna Chauhan, Dr. Anuj Gupta Dr. GPS Jadaun, Dr. Rahul Sharma and Dr. Mallika Lavania were always ready to extend a helping hand and their expert guidance. Mrs. Robi, Ms. Shilpi Dr. Pragya, Dr. P Upadhyay, Dr. Neelja, Dr. Deepak Dr. Mayank and Dr. Gavish were always cooperative and helpful. My colleagues Dr. Mamta, Rajni, Dr. Bhawna, Dilip, Triyambakesh, Dishant, Bhasvyata, Manju, Madhavi, Vandana Bhavnesh, Hari, Sanjay, Alpana, Rajbala, Ankita, Vipin, Dheeraj and Dr. KD Rawat who were always there for me and maintained a cheerful working environment. I wish to extend my gratitude towards tour store keeper Mr. Gopichand and technical staff (Jitender, Rajesh, Ravi, Mr. Masih, Mr. Vinod, Dimpal, Rakesh ji Sunil & Mukesh) and all other staff members of Microbiology and Molecular Biology Laboratory who helped me time of need. No scientific endeavor is successful with prompt and timely support of administration, accounts and library. I thank Mr. Robi, Mr. Singh, Mr. Katara, Mr. Sharma, Mr. Chopra, Mr. Yadav, and Mr. Masih for their support. I am also grateful to field staff at MRHRU Ghatampur Pradeep Mishra, Jaya Sharma, Md Wasim, Manvendra Singh and Nause who helped me in sample collection and field coverage.

I am grateful to Dr. Arun Sharma and Dr. A Anvikar from NIMR, New Delhi, for providing me necessary guidance support and permissions to use their laboratory facilities which helped me to bring a major part of my thesis to logical conclusion. My deepest and sincere thanks to Dr. CR Pillai who taught me art of tissue culture and his devotion to research and benevolence is my inspiration forever. Thanks to Dr. Rajnikant and Dr. Kailash Pandey, NIMR, New Delhi for many discussions during the course of this work. It has been a nice experience to visit their laboratory for a couple of times and get useful suggestions. I am also thankful to students & staff of NIMR who also helped me; Sonam, Kavita, Devender, Reva and Bhanu Ji.

I am sincerely obliged to Prof. K.C. Gupta for discussions and unlimited help with chemistry and INH detection during most challenging portion of my research. His student Dr. Sanjeev Yadav was almost an asset on whom I still rely for understanding chemical reactivities of INH.

Thanks to my teachers and faculties of SOS Biotechnology & Biochemistry, Jiwaji University especially Prof. Nalini Srivastava have been helpful to me in various ways during the course of this work. I thank all of my friends from Jiwaji (Ravi, Anish, Senthil, Nita and Sumit) who helped me throughout this period.

I am especially grateful to my friends from other centers who have contributed to my work in numerous ways difficult to express in words. Dr. Manmeet Rawat from NIMR New Delhi, Dr. Jitendra Verma from Safderjung Hospital, New Delhi and Dr. Sumit Goyal from SMS Med.collage, Jaipur, hear I can just duly express my gratitude and admit that I can never thank them enough.
It is a great moment to remember my family for their unrelenting efforts for my education since my childhood. My father Justice. NK Gupta and Mother Smt. Manisha Gupta have always supported endlessly for my higher education. I just cannot stop recalling all the hardships they have faced and yet never getting any of those reflected on me. My brother Mr. Harshvardhan always wanted me to see at the pinnacle and extended all the moral support to accomplish my objectives. It is very special occasion to memorize my wife Dr. Deepshikha, who is an epitome of determination, has been a great source of inspiration and motivation for me. I hope in the present endeavor, the efforts and confidences entrusted on me by my family see the light of the day. I thank my father- and mother-in-law Dr. P.C. Agrawal and Smt. Manoroma Agrawal; and sister-in-law Ms. Smita for their moral support and blessings.

I sincerely acknowledge all my teachers who have laid a foundation in me during early stages of my education. Those people whom I have not mentioned by name I ask for their forgiveness and accept my thanks for their support and encouragement.
