CONTENTS

Introduction 1-3

I. Aims & Objectives 3

II. Historic Review of the Family Myrtaceae 3-5

III. Economic Importance of the family 6

IV. Area of Study 7-9

V. Physiography 9-10

1. Coastal Region 10

2. Midland Region 11

3. Mountain Region 11

4. Backwaters and Rivers 11

   a. Backwaters 11

   b. Rivers 11-14

5. Geology 14-15

6. Rock and Soil 15-16

7. Climate 16-17

8. Temperature 17

9. Humidity 18

10. Rainfall 18-20

VI. Vegetation 20-21

1 Moist Deciduous Forest 20-21

2 Tropical Semi-evergreen Forests 21-22
3  Tropical Wet Evergreen Forests  22-23
4  Sholas and Grasslands  23
5  Grasslands or Mountain Vegetation  24
6  Sacred Groves  24

VII.  Methodology  25-27

VIII.  Plan of Presentation of Data  27-29

IX.  Observation  29-32

X.  Result & Conclusion  32-36

XI.  Systematic Treatment  36-160

XII.  Bibliography  61-71

XIII.  Appendix

1.  Chart showing Economic Importance at a glance

2.  Map showing Distribution of Endemic Species

3.  Reprint
Antoine Laurent De Jussieu
Taxon 1972 478