ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

No work is complete without due acknowledgements. Words although are not enough to extend my sincere gratitude to all those who have been instrumental in my leading my PhD thesis to conclusion, they are the best means for expressions of my emotions.

A mentor has always been equated with god. I extend my heartfelt thanks to my guide Dr. G. C. Bhimani who has been the force behind my achievement. It is in his garden that the thoughts of my mind could blossom. It is he who has taught me that if one heads in right direction, each step, no matter how small, it gets one closer to the goal and that direction is more important rather than the speedometer. Above all I value his human qualities which make him a great person.

Next, I would like to thank all faculty of Department of Statistics, Saurashtra University for their feedback and cooperation. I sincerely thanks for their quick and ever ready help when I required. Their brilliant comments and suggestions help me a lot for my research work who donated time to edit my thesis spend hours to polish my work in presentable manner.

I thank almighty to grace me with wonderful family. Both families have supported me throughout. I am indebted to my parents, all four of them for their unconditional love and support. Without help of them I would not be able to do anything.

I would also like to thank my daughter, Shreya who joined me before this thesis was completed, for giving me unlimited happiness, pleasure and bring a big smile when feeling low; yet I am sorry for the time, we spent apart. When I see her, all tension evaporates. She understands me the feeling of a father. Lucky have you in my life beta.

I am also thankful to all those who have been of immense help to me, either directly or indirectly and those names I have unknowingly missed out, in making this thesis a worthy endeavour.

In conclusion I seek the blessings of Almighty who has forever kept me his kind hand over my shoulder to help me see brighter horizons in the coming future.

Thank You Everyone....................
