ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am extremely grateful to Dr Sharad Joshi, for accepting me as his research student, even through he already has large number of research students working under him from University of Pune as well as Symbiosis Management institute and in spite of his fulltime responsibilities as Director Vishwakarma Institute of Management (VIM). It was possible to sustain my enthusiasm and interest at an elevated level due to his constant encouragement and timely advice. He found time to visit along with me to all the three case study project sites which helped me to finalize study plan. This research work could be completed only because of his active role in guiding my research work. I am thankful to Dr Sharad Joshi for his able guidance.

Dr Ashok Joshi, Director, INDSEARCH and Dr N M Vechalekar, Dean, INDSEARCH supported my research activities and provided direction to the research work from time to time. I am thankful to them for their encouragement. Late Dr Gunjal, ex-dean of INDSEARCH was extremely helpful in explaining administrative steps for completing research rules. I will always remember his whole-hearted support.

I am specially thankful to Dr B K Gairola, DG,NIC, Dr N Vijayaditya, ex-DG, NIC, Mr D P Bobde,ex-DDG, NIC, Pune, Mrs P P Joag, DDG,NIC,Pune and concerned NIC staff for permitting me to undertake this Research work and sanctioning of ten months study leave.

Mr U C Sarangi, IAS, MD, NABARD, Principal Secretary to government of Maharahashtra appreciated the research topic and provided the necessary coordination support at Government of Maharashtra level. He issued letters to Commissioner KDMC, Settlement Commissioner and concerned Collectors to permit the conduct of case studies. He also requested Principal Secretary Revenue to permit conduct of Land Records case study I am grateful to Mr Sarangi for his association with this research work.
Mr R D Shinde, Commissioner KDMC, Mr Subhash Patil, System Manager, KDMC, Mrs Minal Bhade and staff of KDMC provided excellent support to conduct the research work. They were quite transparent in providing the required information. I am thankful to all of them for their active support to conduct field survey.

I am thankful to Smt Neela Satyanarayana Principal Secretary Revenue for allowing conduct of impact analysis study for Land Records Computerization project. Mr T C Benjamin, ex-Settlement Commissioner & Director of Land records appreciated the research activities and gave excellent overview of the project and issued directives to field level offices for permitting conduct of field visits and survey. I am thankful to Mr Sharma, Settlement Commissioner who has issued necessary directives to provide information. I am also thankful to Mr Samir Datar, Principal Systems Analyst, National Informatics Centre, Pune, Mr Shinde from computer section in charge Settlement Commissioner’s office and staff from taluka level offices of Revenue department for their help while conducting research work for Land Records case study. I am thankful to Dr Krishna Lavekar, Commissioner Agriculture, Mr D B Deshmukh, Deputy director computers and field level staff of Agriculture department for their active role in conducting land records survey at village level.

I am thankful to Smt. V Sardesai, Chairman SSC board and other SSC board authorities for permitting conduct of study of Online Examination system. I am thankful to Mr Deepak Joshi and his team who provided minute details of the Online Examination System.

I am thankful to Dr Madhavi Kulkarni, lecturer, SNDT, Pune for explaining use of statistical methods for my research work.
I am grateful to Mr A K Pathak, Head of Computer Science, MIT to inspire me to enroll for inter-disciplinary Ph D course of University of Pune.
I am grateful to my father Mr Sadashiv Kulkarni and my mother, Mrs Leela Kulkarni who were my constant source of motivation to complete this research work.

Last but not the least I am thankful to my husband, Mr Prakash Sardesai for his wonderful support and encouragement during the research work. Ulka, my daughter too supported this endeavor for its completion.

Mrs Swati P Sardesai
Research Student