Acknowledgements

First and foremost, I am thankful to the Supreme Lord for enabling me with HIS unbounded Grace and Mercy to accomplish this uphill task. I humbly bow low and offer my obeisance in the Lotus Feet of the Supreme Father. I am extremely grateful to Most Revered Prof. P. S. Satsangi Sahab, Chairman, Advisory Committee on Education, Dayalbagh, for HIS Guidance, Encouragement and Help.

I am highly indebted to my supervisor, Prof. C. Patvardhan for his expert guidance, support and encouragement. His authority over the subject and the ability to explain the complex concepts in lucid manner helped in understanding Quantum and Evolutionary Algorithms. His kind words when things were not working as desired, that it is darkest just before the dawn, still rings in my ears. After initial guidance, he gave me complete freedom to explore the intriguing world of research, for which, I am thankful.

I am grateful to Prof. V. G. Das, Honorable Director, DEI, and Prof. Anand Mohan, Registrar, DEI for their constant support and encouragement.

I am thankful to Prof. V. Prem Pyara, Head, Department of Electrical Engineering, for the support he extended to me throughout this endeavor.

I thank Prof. D. S. Mishra, Dean, for making available the facilities of the Faculty during the course of this work.

I am grateful to Dr. Soami P. Satsangee, Incharge, USIC for his support and encouragement.

I am thankful to Dr. Nandita Satsangee and Dr. C.Vasantha Lakshmi for their concern.
I am grateful to all who have directly or indirectly contributed in the successful completion of this work.

My thanks are also due to Dr. P. K. Sinha, Mrs. V. Radha, Mrs. Rekha Gogia and Sh. Deepak Bose for their help.

I thank Dr. D. Bhagwan Das, Dr. G.S. Sailesh Babu, Dr. K. Srinivas, for their concern and timely help. Dr. G.S. Sailesh Babu, Department of Electrical Engineering, DEI helped me enormously in understanding Dynamic Economic Dispatch problem.

I thank Prof. K. Hans Raj, Prof. Rahul Caprihan, Dr. Vishal Sahni and Rahul Swarup Sharma, for their kind help, concern and support. Dr. Rahul Swarup Sharma has been very cooperative and helped me in understanding engineering design optimization problems.

Dr. Vishal Sahni organized various conferences, meetings and advanced schools on Quantum Computing like QANSAS series, which provided an excellent opportunity for valuable interactions with eminent researchers in the field like Dr. Charles Bennet, Dr. Lov. K. Grover, Prof. Ashok Agrawala, UMD, Prof. Anand Srivastav, Kiel University, Prof. A. Patel, IISc Bangalore, Prof. Anil Kumar, IISc Bangalore, Dr. T A Tulsi, IIT Bombay, Dr. D. Goswami, IIT Kanpur, Dr. D. Bera, IIT Delhi, Dr. A. Venugopal, TIFR Mumbai, Prof. S.D. Mahanti, Michigan State University, Dr. Stuart Tessmer, Michigan State University, Prof. Arun Pati, IOP, Bhubaneswar, India, Prof. P. K. Panigrahi, IISER, Prof. V. Ravishankar, IIT, Kanpur, Prof. P.K. Kalra, IIT Kanpur, Prof. P. K. Kalra, IIT Delhi, Prof Huzur Saran, IIT Delhi.

Prof. Satish Kumar, Prof. V. R. Satsangi, Dr. Sukhdev Roy, Dr. Sandip Paul, Mr. P.S. Sudish and Mr. Y. Sandhu, Department of Physics and Computer Science, DEI for their concern, help and support.

Prof. Satish Kumar organized SQUAN-2007, where I attended talk by Dr. Lov. K. Grover, Bell Labs, USA. I am thankful to him for allowing me to participate in the event.
I thank Prof. A.K. Sinha, Prof. Gunjan Agrawal and Dr. Gurusaran, Department of Maths, DEI for their concern and help.

I thank Prof. R. Srivastava, Prof. M. Kumari, Department of Chemistry, DEI for their concern and support.

I thank, Prof. Sanjeev Soami, Prof. Vijai Caprihan, Prof. K.S. Swarup, Dr. Sumita, from Department of Management, DEI for their concern. Prof. K.S. Swarup and Mr. R. Prasad organized MDP-2010, which proved very helpful.

I thank Mr. G.D. Srivastava, Mr. V.R. Srivastava, Gurnamji, Sunil Kumar, Gur Dhyan, Gurlal of USIC for their support. I especially thank Mr. R.S.S. Pranth, Technical College, for his lively discussions.

I thank DST and DEI for funding and supporting visits to US and UK for attending conferences and academic meetings. I am also grateful to Prof. Anand Srivastav, Director, Christian-Albrechts University, Kiel, Germany, who invited me during my visit to UK, for a Research Stay at Kiel and gave me an opportunity present my work to his esteemed group.

I am indebted to Dr. Lov K. Grover, Bell Labs, for his discussions on open problems in quantum algorithms, advice and help.

I am thankful to Prof. E. Farhi, MIT for giving me an opportunity to present my work to his esteemed group, the feedback on my work and the hospitality that was extended during my stay at MIT.

I am grateful to Prof. Ashok Agrawala, Director MINDS Lab, UMD and Prof. Sharad Sharma, BSU for their concern, support, help and hospitality extended during my research stay at Maryland and Bowie.
I am thankful to Prof. Ari Mizel, UMD and Prof. Markus Grassl, NUS for very illuminating and insightful discussions on the nuances of quantum search through a series of emails.

I am thankful to Prof. L. A. Zadeh and Prof. Eric Wilde, UC Berkeley, Prof. Rajit Gadh, UCLA, Prof. S. Latifi, UNLV, Prof. W. Culbreth, UNLV, Prof. Erick Goodman, Prof. C. Ofria, Prof. Stuart Tessmer, Prof. S.D. Mahanti of MSU, Prof. Steve Homer, BU, Prof. J. R. Anderson, UMD, Prof. G.T. Parks, Cambridge University, Prof. V. Palade, Oxford University, Prof. L. Teodosescu, Brunel University, Prof. D. Al-Dabass, NTU, Dr. Ruth Oulton, Bristol.

My thanks are due to Prof. Xin Yao, Director, CERCIA, Birmingham University for giving me an opportunity to present my work to his esteemed group.

I am thankful to all my family members for their good wishes. It was my parent’s keen desire that I should take academics as a profession and serve DEI, in particular. During the course of this work, I lost my father, who would have been extremely happy with the effort. My parents have been very supportive and I do not think that I can ever thank them enough. My mother has put in special efforts to make me a scholar from a hard core cricketer.

Prof. Mrs. Soami P. Kaura and Prof. Sahab Dass have been extremely encouraging and helpful. I feel especially fortunate to have them around in all kinds of situations. Thanks, Mom and Dad for being so very helpful.

I am grateful to Vrishti, Sumit, Sana, Kalyanji and family for their concern.

I am thankful to all my friends and relatives for their good wishes.

I am especially thankful to Alok Goyale, London, Yadhuveer Singh, Basingstoke, Mr. Kapoor and family, Birmingham, Dr. Gautum and family, London, Sh. Hari Gautum and Sh. Ashish Srivastava for help during UK visit. I am also thankful to Sh. Dayal Rattan and family, Las Vegas, Mr. Rahul Sharan and family, Los Angeles, Sh. Sridhar Kotti and family, San Francisco, Sh. Puneet Jairath and family, Denver, Vishal Swarup, Boston, Asad Khan and family, New York, Sh. Suresh Kumar, Sh. Deepak Gogia, Sarvesh Gupta and Sanjeev Agrawal for their help and support.

Lastly, I would thank my wife, Nija, for her wholehearted support, encouragement, perseverance and patience, and the pains which she took to keep me free from the domestic demands especially with our demanding son, Hans and worries are worth a special mention. Hans is a curious creature, who is currently mesmerized with the printer as he is watching me take printouts of this work, and wants to experiment with it. With all his antics, somehow, he manages to be a great stress buster and energizer.

During the course of this program, I have worked in areas about which I did not have any knowledge previously. Therefore, the biggest advantage of this foray has been the quantum improvement in my own knowledge level in about 4 and a half years, which in absolute terms is insignificant, as there are many interesting and challenging problems and avenues. However, I have also realized that useful creative time in a day for a family man, who is also a teacher, is very limited. Thus, one needs to be focused in order to make the best use of acquired knowledge and skills. And I feel this realization is the best output of this endeavor.

I once again thank everyone associated with the endeavor.
