ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This doctoral thesis would not have been possible without the guidance and help of several individuals who in one way or another contributed and extended their valuable assistances in the preparation and completion of this study.

My Ph.D. thesis would have been inconceivable without the scholarly guidance of my supervisor Prof. Ashutosh Kumar. He has not only been an intellectual powerhouse but a ‘friend, philosopher and guide’. During the long and tedious period of this thesis writing, he encouraged me with his words of wisdom and scholarly advices. I will remain forever indebted for his generous guidance and support.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my Chairperson Dr. Pampa Mukherjee for always having time for me and my questions, for giving me advice and motivation, when I felt lost.

I acknowledge the guidance provided by the faculty members of the Department of Political Science Prof. Bhupinder Singh Brar, Prof. Sanjay Chaturvedi, Prof. Deepak Kumar Singh, Prof. Ronki Ram, Dr. K. K. Kailash, Janaki Srinivasan and Dr. Navjot. They always extended the helping hand and their criticism has been insightful and thought provoking.

I owe special gratitude to all the staff members of the Department of Political Science for assisting me whenever I needed their help. I take this opportunity to thank the Library staff of the Department for their constant help.

I am grateful to the staff of the A.C. Joshi Library for their help in providing required information. I found A.C. Joshi Library as one of the best Library in the country. My work would not have been complete without the help of this library.

My deepest gratitude goes to my employer Hindu College, University of Delhi, Delhi for giving me study leave so that I can complete my Ph.D.

Last but not least, a very heart-warming thanks to all my friends and family members for their continuous support and cooperation.

For any errors or inadequacies that may remain in this work, of course, the responsibility is entirely my own.
