ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The present study has been conducted at the Centre for Political Study, School of Social Sciences, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi. I am extremely thankful to the Indian Council of Historical Research for granting me one year's fellowship, which enabled me to complete my study. I am deeply indebted to my Supervisor, Professor K. Seshadri, who introduced me to the studies on peasant struggles, supervised and guided my work at every stage. I am thankful to Professor Rasheeduddin Khan, Centre for Political Studies and Professor C.P. Bhambri, Chairman, Centre for Political Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University, who enabled me to complete my work at the University.

My appreciative thanks are due to the following libraries and their staff for the use of the books, documents and micro-films in their custody: Nehru Museum Library, New Delhi; National Archives Library, New Delhi; Bihar Archives Library, Patna; Bihar Legislature Library, Patna; Sachidanand Sinha Library, Patna; Jawaharlal Nehru University Library, New Delhi; Kirori Mal College Library, Delhi and Motilal Nehru College Library, New Delhi.

I am grateful to Shri Triveni Sharma Sudhakar, Shri Ganga Dhar Das, Shri Indradeep Sinha, Shri P.C. Joshi and Shri Kishori Prasanna Sinha who gave me their invaluable time for interviewing them despite their hectic activities.

I am deeply indebted to my father Shri N.L. Gupta, Lecturer, Department of Political Science, Kirori Mal College, who went through the initial draft and made substantial suggestions which improved this dissertation. I am equally indebted to my mother, Mrs. S. Gupta, Department of English, Delhi Public School, who read the first draft and helped me to remove the ambiguities and incongruities of language.

I am thankful to the following for having helped me in various ways: Shri Girish Mishra, Lecturer, Kirori Mal College, Shri Sahajanand Rai, Communist Party (Bihar), Shri Lok Nath Kunmar, Communist Party (Bihar) and Dr. K. Maitra, Deputy Secretary, Indian Council of Historical Research.

I am thankful to Shri J.D. Khatri, Principal, Motilal Nehru College for granting me one year's leave during the period of fellowship from the college.
