ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

He who has faith has everything and he who lacks faith lacks everything. It is in the name of LORD that works wonder. So first of all I thank GOD for bestowing his blessings on me to enable me to complete my research work in time.

A complex, complicated and difficult problem selected for the thesis was made simple, smooth and easier by my learned teachers. In completing and presenting this work titled “Appellate Jurisdiction of Supreme Court of India With Special Reference to Article 136 of India: A Critical Appraisal”, I express my sincere gratitude to Prof. Arvind Jasrotia, Head and Dean, Faculty of Law for granting permission to undertake the task and the present title.

I considered myself fortunate enough to get the guidance of Dr. Sanjay Gupta, Associate Professor under whose supervision this work has come out in its present shape. He stood steadfast like a rock in my support and he not helped, guided and boosted my morale at various stages of this work but also give me liberty to approach him freely without being least annoyed.

The service and friendly cooperation of Mr. Tarsem Singh, Assistant Librarian and the whole staff of Library in the Department of Law were indeed remarkable.

I cannot express my feelings in words for My Loving Parents who set this aim to me and also help me financially as well as morally during this period.

I have no words to acknowledge the contribution of my husband Mr. Satish Sharma for his fully cooperation and support. I also thanks my parents-in-laws for their support and cooperation in one way or the other.

I express my sincere gratitude to my loving son Suovan who has been a constant source of inspiration and a moral support and always encourage me for my work. I always remember his cooperation towards me.
I am also indebted to the innumerable researchers and authors whose research findings have been consulted during the course of this work, and also to all those people of the study area who helped me in one way or the other.

Last but not the least I am thankful to Mr. Sooraj Sharma and Mr. Romesh Khajuria for taking all the pain and care for composing the present manuscript neatly and correctly in shortest possible time.

PLACE: __________
DATE: __________

(SMRTI SHARMA)