Though this thesis reflects my name on the front cover, but many people have contributed to it. I wholeheartedly convey my first thanks to the Almighty God, by whose grace, I could survive healthy and worthy to successfully finish this work.

My deepest gratitude goes to my parents, Sh. Ramesh Lal Sanyal and Mrs. Kaushlya Devi and my grandmother, Mrs. Kaushlya Devi for nurturing and making me able in every aspect to achieve this goal. I thank Miss. Ritu Devi, who constantly stood along with me and helped to achieve this task. Besides me, she is the person, who helped to bring this pile of pages in form of thesis and soon will be a member in our family.

I convey my sincere thanks to my supervisor, Dr. Gurpaul Singh Dhingra, Professor, Department of Botany, Punjabi University, Patiala, for assigning me this interesting work under his esteemed guidance. It is a matter of privilege for me to be known as his student throughout my life. Besides my shortcomings, his endless patience, suggestions and views during this work always encouraged me to move ahead. I feel fortunate to have an advisor, who gave me the freedom to express my views to him. At the same time my sincere thanks to my co-supervisor, Dr. Shwet Kamal, Senior Scientist, Directorate of Mushroom Research, Chambaghat (ICAR), Solan (H.P.) for supervising me in the advance aspects related to this research work. His affection and support helped me to complete this thesis very comfortably.

I would also like to thank Mrs. Meena Dhingra and Mrs. Rakhi Verma for their affection and motherly behavior during out visits to the fields as well as at the home.

I express my sincere thanks to Prof. M.I.S. Saggoo, Head, Department of Botany, Punjabi University, Patiala for allowing me to work and use lab facilities in this department. I also extend my thanks to Dr. Manjit Singh, Director, Directorate of Mushroom Research (ICAR), Chambaghat, Solan (H.P.) for allowing me to work at this prestigious institute.

Thanks are for all my teachers in the department of Botany, Punjabi University, Patiala i.e. Prof. R.C. Gupta, Prof. V.K. Singhal, Prof. Amarjeet Singh, Prof. N.S. Atri, Prof. J.I.S. Khattar, Dr. Devinderpal Singh, Dr. Manruchi Kaur, Dr. Geetika Sirhindi, Dr. Arneet Grewal, Dr. Manish Kapoor and Dr. Avneet Pal Singh for the time to time help during the entire course.

I humbly acknowledge Prof. Urmas Kõljalg and Dr. Kadri Põldmaa for supervising me during my six months visit (May, 2013–November, 2013) to University of Tartu, Estonia.

I also thank Prof. Nils Hallenberg (Prof. Emeritus, University of Gothenburg, Sweden), Prof. Leif Ryvarden (University of Oslo, Norway) for expert opinion, wherever required for the identification of specimens and Prof. Tuomo Niemelä and Dr. Dmitry Schigel (University of Helsinki, Finland) for teaching me the basics of Polypore ecology during the Polypore workshop (September, 2013) in Poland.

I extend my sincere thanks to non-teaching staff, laboratory assistants and other supporting staff of Botany Department, Punjabi University, Patiala for their time to time help. My thanks are also to the scientific, technical and supporting staff of the Directorate of Mushroom Research (ICAR), Chambaghat, Solan (H.P).

I am feeling privileged to thank all my lab mates for being a part of my lab team during the phase of this work.

I also thank my friends Amit Kumar Sharma (Kaku), Vipin Kumar Singh, Pawan Kumar Rana, Dr. Sapan Sharma, Dr. Zydrunas Preiksa, Lovely Pathania and Harmeet Kaur for their time to time support.
Acknowledgements

I convey my thanks to my lovable sisters, Meenakshi Sanyal, Neha Sanyal, Jyoti Sanyal, Nina Jain and brothers Vineet Sanyal, Sameer Sanyal and Anuj Sanyal. This work would have been difficult without their presence and support in most of the times.

I respectfully acknowledge the blessings of my Chacha ji, Chachi ji, Bua ji and Buaiya ji.

A part of this research was funded by European Union’s Social Fund i.e. DoRa activity 5, ‘Facilitating international research cooperation by supporting short-term research projects of visiting doctoral students’.

I humbly convey my gratitude to all those who were always somehow involved during the period of this research work.
