ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my supervisor Prof. Aijazuddin Ahmed for his guidance and assistance throughout the period of research and writing up.

I gratefully acknowledge the generosity with which Prof. G.K. Chadha offered his help and the facilities available in the centre. I wish to express my deep debt of gratitude to Prof. G.S. Bhalla for his constant encouragement at different stages of the work. I would also like to take this opportunity to thank Prof. M.H. Qureshi, Prof. Kusum Chopra, Prof. A. Habib, Dr. R.K. Sharma, Dr. Sachidanand Sinha, Dr. Mahabir Janglan and all other teachers and non-teaching staff members of the Centre for the Study of Regional Development who have always been helpful to me.

A special word of thanks is also due to Ms Sanghmitra and Dr. Surinder Kumar for giving valuable suggestions on an earlier draft. In fact, this study would not have been possible without the help provided by many of my friends, particularly Dr. Pritam Singh, Mrs. Ravinder kaur, Ms Narinder pal Kaur, Dr. Gian Singh. Dr. Balbir Singh, Mr. Sharaman Acharya, Mr. Harbhajan Singh and Mr. Jagrup Singh.

I wish to record my deep appreciation to all the respondents of the surveyed villages among whom I lived and worked, who so generously shared their life, their work experiences and their worries. Among them I am especially thankful to Ms. Santosh Kumari, Ms. Chand Kaur, Ms. Angrej Kaur, Ms. Kashmir Devi, Ms. Balvir Kaur, Ms. Mukhtiar Kaur, Ms. Gurdev Kaur and Mr. Gurdial Brar who spared much of their time inspite of their busy schedule. With their help, I was able to develop a good rapport with the respondents.

I must sincerely thank the staff of JNU library, ICSSR library, Rattan Tata library, Centre for Women's Development Studies and Institute of Studies in Industrial Development. My thanks are also due to Mr. Sudhir Kumar and Mr. Satinder Kumar for their help in data processing.

July 1993.
