PART - ONE

THE THEORY

CHAPTER - I  THEORY OF SOVEREIGNITY

1. Origin of the Theory  1
2. Development of the Theory  3
3. Basic Ingredients and nature of Sovereignty  7
4. Challenges to State Sovereignty  14

CHAPTER - II  Communist Concept of Sovereignty  40

1. Evolution of the Theory  41
2. Conceptual Analysis  54
3. Foundations of Sovereignty  70
   i) National self-determination
   ii) Socialist Internationalism
   iii) Socialist International Law
   iv) Peaceful Co-existence.

THE SYSTEM AND ITS BEHAVIOUR

CHAPTER -III  East European International Communist System  108

1. Formation of the System  110
2. International Organizations.  128
i) Cominform

ii) Council for Mutual Economic Assistance.

iii) Warsaw Treaty Organization.

3. International Political Ecology

CHAPTER - IV

Sovereignty in Crisis Situations

1. Soviet-Yugoslav Dispute 1948
2. Hungary in 1956
3. Czechoslovakia in 1968
4. Brezhnev Doctrine and its Impact

PART - TWO

THE INNOVATION AND THE CHANGE

CHAPTER - V

Perestroika and Soviereignty

1. Roots of Reform
2. Perestroika and Glasnost
3. Decline of Class- Rule and Class - Struggle
4. De-ideologisation of International Relations.
5. Repudiation of Brezhnev Doctrine and Democratisation of International Relations.
6. Cooperation between different Systems
CHAPTER VI

Sovereignty as a Fulcrum of Change

1. Response to the Innovation
3. Pattern of Change in East European States.

CHAPTER VII

Disintegration of East European International Communist System

1. Process of Disintegration
2. Common European Home
3. Dissolution of Warsaw Treaty Organization.
5. Relations with the West.

CHAPTER VIII

Diverse Repercussions On Sovereignty - Germany and the USSR.

1. Integration of a Nation - Unification of Germany as Sovereign State.
2. Disintegration of a State - The USSR

CONCLUSION

BIBLIOGRAPHY