ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

God’s gifts are wonderfull. I wish to dedicate this Thesis to the almighty Lord Siddeshwar and Ganesha, for providing me the unique opportunity to accomplish my dream of acquiring a Ph.D. Degree.

The dedication, insight, inspiration, affection and patience of many people around me are the core ingredients of this contribution. This acknowledgement transcends the reality of formality when I would like to express deep gratitude and respect to all inspired and helped me for the completion of research work.

My heartfelt thanks to our president of prestigious H.K.E. Society, Sri. Shashil G. Namoshi and Council members, for providing kind timely support and encouragement. ‘Thanks’ is really a small word for the incomparable facilities extended by the esteemed H.K.E. Society, Gulbarga, who cared me with bread and butter with their shed and shelter.

I owe an immense sense of gratitude to my guide, Dr. Basavaraj S. Anami, Professor in CSE and Principal, K.L.E. Institute of Technology, Hubli, for his tenderhearted support, exceptional patience, commendable guidance and constant encouragement throughout the work. I gained a lot from his meticulous knowledge and experience during my entire research period. I thank wholeheartedly to my Co-guide Dr. A. Govardhan, Professor in Computer Science and Engineering, School of IT, J.N.T. University Hyderabad, whose multidimensional support, worthy advice, timely guidance and unparalleled cooperation are the ingredients of success and progress all through.

I thank Dr. P. S. Hiremath, Professor, Department of Computer Science, Gulbarga University, Gulbarga who shared their knowledge in the related areas and assisted to work in the proper direction.

Sincere thanks to my beloved Principal, Dr. S. S. Hebbal, wholeheartedly, who remains the constant source of inspiration for the researchers of our generation.

I am grateful to the authorities of Jawaharlal Nehru Technological University, Hyderabad, for providing me an opportunity to pursue the doctoral research work. I am also thankful to Visveswaraiah Technological University, Belgaum, Karnataka, for providing financial support to present my research paper at the International Conference in Singapore. I sincerely thank the authorities, faculty and staff of Poojya Doddappa Appa College of Engineering, Gulbarga, for their co-operation. I express my deep gratitude to Prof. Rekha Patil, Head of the department, Computer Science & Engg and faculty members for providing continuous counseling and suggestions with immense care and zeal throughout the work. The smiling support of the faculty and staff of KLE Institute of Technology, Hubli, is always remembered with a sense of appreciation.
It would have been impossible without the support of the Ayurvedic practitioner, Dr Mohan Nuchi, Professor of Ayurvedic College, Hubli for providing expert assistance during sample collection. I extend my thanks to members of various Botanical parks, such as Gulbarga University Gulbarga, M. M. Joshi park and members of the Budinal forest, Hubli, for providing permission for data collection.

Heartfelt regards to family members, especially my husband Er. Anilkumar Mangalgi, who was backbone with his inestimable support, encouragement and co-operation throughout the course of the research work. My sincere thanks to my brother Sri Vishwanath Nandyal and my friend Mrs. Sridevi Soma for providing the support during field visit for sample collection and moral support.

I thank my senior researchers Prof. D. G. Savakar of BLDECET Bijapur, Prof. V. C. Burkapalli, PDACE Gulbarga, who shared their time, knowledge and resources with me.

I thank Mrs. Gloria, Prof. in K.L.E. Institute of Technology, Hubli, for English correction and suggestion.

I express my sincere thanks to the anonymous reviewers who showed the beacon of hope whenever I was in darkness of ignorance.

I extend my gratitude to the friends for the unwavering cooperation and motivation through my tough times.

I express the deepest sense of gratitude to my in-laws Sri. Madivalappa Mangalgi and Smt. Sarojanamma Mangalgi for extending their moral support and blessings.
I owe heartfelt thanks to my children Master Anmol and Miss Aishwarya for their emotional support and understanding.
