ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I bow my head before the almighty God for bestowing his benevolence upon me by virtue of which I could reach this stage of my academic career.

During the course of my work, I received abundant support from numerous quarters --- my family and my teachers. The culmination of this research work in itself bears testimony to the unflinching support of all these special people who have played significant role in one way or the other.

Words are insufficient to express my deep gratitude to my honorable and distinguished Supervisor, Dr. Meenakshi, Professor, Department of Education and Community Service and Director, Women’s Studies Centre, Punjabi University, Patiala who provided me inspiring guidance, consistent advice, mature supervision and patient hearing throughout the process of my research study. I would not have been able to steer my research work in right direction without her kind co-operation and valuable suggestions.

I am extremely thankful to my co-supervisor Dr. Satvinderpal Kaur for her significant contribution and continuous guidance which enabled me to accomplish the hard task of completing the present study and making this thesis worthy of presentation.

I express my indebtedness to all teachers, all research fellows and administrative staff members of the Department of Education and Community Service, Punjabi University, Patiala for their guidance and support.

In the course of time, I received generous help from several libraries. I am grateful to library staff of Punjabi University, Patiala, Punjab University Chandigarh, Kurukshetra University Kurukshetra, H.P. University, Shimla, NUEPA and NCERT, New Delhi who had been very helpful throughout my research work.

I wish to place on record my sincere thanks to the principals and teachers of secondary schools from different selected districts of Punjab who co-operate and support me to get the requisite data to complete this research work.

I am immensely indebted to my husband Rupesh Kumar for his full cooperation and inestimable help and my special thanks are due to my children Khushi and Akshat, who sacrificed the affectionate moments during my involvement in this work.
