ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The investigator is deeply indebted to Prof. (Dr.) Ayishabi, T.C, Department of Education, University of Calicut, under whose guidance the present study was conducted. Without her scholarly and inspiring guidance, it would not have been possible for the investigator to conduct a study of this kind. The investigator always owe to the affection, kindness and encouragement shown by her.

The investigator expresses her sincere thanks to Dr.C. Naseema, Reader and Head of the Department of Education, Prof. (Dr.) P. Kelu, Prof. (Dr.) V. Sumangala former Heads, Department of Education, University of Calicut, for being very magnanimous in providing the facilities required by her for the completion of the study.

The investigator owes her thanks to retired Prof. (Dr.) P.S. Balasubramanian, Department of Education, University of Madras for his timely guidance for designing the study.

The investigator is indebted to (Dr.) K. Soman, Retired Professor, Department of Education, University of Calicut, for giving necessary help and motivation to carryout this study.

She has countless people to thank for their support, encouragement and co-operation to conduct this study. Sri. V. Ramachandran and Sri.K. Sukumaran, Former DEO's of Thrissur and Malappuram Districts respectively; Sri. T.V. Krishna Prakash, Resource person of Biology, Malappuram District;
Biology teachers participated in the training programme of this study; the Head masters and students of the selected schools, office staff of D.E.O. offices at Thrissur and Malappuram, too many to mention by name are gratefully acknowledged.

The investigator owes her thanks to the Biology students of M.Ed 2002-03 batch for being the subjects of her pilot study, Dr. K. Manikandan, Lecturer in Psychology, Farook College, for helping in statistical analysis, Dr. Anilkumar, P.M. and Dr. Vijayan N.K. for providing reference materials when required by her. Dr. Anilkumar has helped her in the preparation of tools also.

The investigator expresses her thanks to the Research scholars and friends, Department of Education, for their help extended to her. She is also obliged to her family, especially her sister Vijayasree for the motivation, and help shown to her.

The investigator is also thankful to the University Grants Commission for providing financial assistance for the conduct of the study.

Calicut University,

[Signature]

Rekha, P.