ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The investigator has deeply felt indebtedness, gratitude and respect towards her supervising teacher Dr. K. Karunakaran, Former Director, Department of Adult and Continuing Education and Extension Services, University of Calicut, for the constant, vigorous and determined guidance, help and encouragement rendered throughout the study.

The investigator has honest gratitude towards Dr. C. Naseema, Director, Department of Adult, Continuing Education and Extension Services, and Head, Department of Education, University of Calicut, Dean Faculty of Education, Universities of Calicut and Kannur and Member of State Advisory Board of Education, Kerala for the help and encouragement rendered for the successful completion of the work.

The investigator is indebted to Dr. K. Abdul Gafoor, Reader, Department of Education, University of Calicut, who has extended all possible help to her for the completion of work.

The investigator is greatly thankful to Dr. V. Usha Teacher, Model H.S.S. Calicut University Campus, who extended all helps in the analysis of the data.

The investigator has sincere gratitude and respect towards Sri. N. Sudhakaran, Retd. Assistant Registrar, University of Calicut for the help and suggestions provided for the completion of the study.

The investigator realize the value of services rendered by the Headmasters, Teachers and Students of the schools from which the sample for the study was drawn, without which the study would have been incomplete.
The investigator is also deeply indebted to her father K.P. Krishnan, her mother K.V. Indira and her husband R. Shaji for their sincere and patient encouragement for the completion of the work.

The investigator recognize and value the whole-hearted support and help provided by her family members, friends and faculty members of S.A.M. Training College, Poothotta, Ernakulam, well-wishers and all others who helped to conduct this study and prepare this research report.

C.U. Campus

PRIYA, K.P.