ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Present Work is an attempt to study the need, importance and role of Legislature Committees in a Parliamentary system in general and Kerala in particular. The study is necessitated by the changed Scenario in the Parliamentary system. In the course of the study, I received considerable help and encouragement from many sources.

I am greatly indebted to my Supervising Teacher, Dr. V.V. Varghese for his constant encouragement, relentless help and valuable suggestions without which this study would not have been possible. I am really fortunate to enjoy full academic freedom under his supervision. Let me express my deep sense of gratitude to him.

I would like to place on record my sincere thanks to Rev. Dr. M.M. Mathew Maleparampil, Principal, St. Thomas College, Palai.

I am extremely indebted to Mr. Pylokutty George, M.A., LL.B., MPA, Professor and Head of the Department of Politics, St. Thomas College, Palai. His open mind and friendly approach happened to be a source of inspiration to me. Thanks are also due to the other members of the Faculty.

I do acknowledge my special indebtedness to the late (Dr.) V. Kesavan Kutty former Principal, Government Law College, Calicut. Save his inspiration, I would not have made this attempt.
I am extremely grateful to Dr. Vikrama Achary, Selection Grade Lecturer, Research and Post Graduate Department of Politics, University College, Trivandrum for his creative suggestions and scholarly comments. Also, let me take this opportunity to extend my sincere thanks to the other members of the Department.

I remember with gratitude the sample respondents particularly Mr. M. Vijayakumar, the Former Speaker, who amidst his busy business always found time to reply to my queries. I take this opportunity to extend my sincere thanks to the officials of the Legislature Secretariat, Kerala Legislative Assembly, Trivandrum.

I do recall with gratefulness the sincere help and service rendered by the Librarians and Staff of Legislature Library, Trivandrum, Public Library, Kollam, Kerala University Library, Trivandrum and Mahatma Gandhi University Library, Kottayam. Also my heart felt thanks are due to the Librarians of St. Thomas College, Palai, Government Law College, Ernakulam and Maharaja’s College, Ernakulam.

I express my sincere thanks to M/s. Nirmala DTP Centre, Kollam for the prompt and studious service. Also, I do acknowledge the moral and material support extended to me by the members of the family.
