WORKS CITED AND CONSULTED

PRIMARY SOURCES

---. His Honour, and a Lady. D. Appleton & co., 1898.

---. Set in Authority. Archibald Constable, 1906.

SECONDARY SOURCES

Allen, Peter. "Narrative Uncertainty in Duncan's The Imperialist." Studies in Canadian Literature, vol.9, no.1, 1984, pp. 41-60.

---. “Novelist and the Nation.” Canadian Literature, no. 61, Summer 1974, pp. 125-128.

Eldridge, C.C. The Imperial Experience: From Carlyle to Forster. Macmillian, 1996.

Palkar, Sarla. “Where are we Going from Here?: A Note on the Dilemmas and Uncertainties of an English Teacher in an Indian University Today.” Journal of Contemporary Thought, 1993, pp. 159-165.

Peterman, Michael. “Passage to Ghoom.”
http://www.booksincanada.com/article_view.asp?id=27

Smith, Sheila M. The Other Nation: The Poor in English Novels of the 1840s and 1850s. Oxford UP, 1980.

---. “Duncan’s Passage to India.” Canadian Literature, vol. 73, 1977, pp. 39-53.

