Acknowledgement

First and foremost I want to thank my supervisor Professor Halima Sadia Rizvi. This endeavour of five years would not have been possible without her guidance and support. I am indebted to her for her extreme patience with me in times of my personal difficulties. In all, her enthusiasm and motivation for research kept me going and gave me opportunities to be part of important conferences within and outside India. I am especially grateful to her husband, Professor SAM Rizvi, whose conscious and unconscious presence has always been a guiding light in my Ph.D. pursuit. Both of them have treated me as family and I hope this journey continues even-after.

I gratefully acknowledge my parents’ contribution who never left my side during my phases of high and low, and in times of anxiety and confusions. My father’s unsaid support and my mother’s love and care has brought me to this pedestal of my life’s achievement. My lovely sisters, Nidhi and Shivani, have always made themselves available for any related work from editing to proof reading. I am blessed to have them and am thankful for their love and support. I am equally grateful to my friends, Tavishi, Kanika, Nisar, Mansi and Abul for their support.

My acknowledgement would be incomplete without the mention of my parents in law. I want to especially thank my mother-in-law without whose support it would have been extremely difficult to reach this day. And most of all I am blessed to have a loving, supportive, encouraging, and patient husband Rahul whose ardent support and faith during the final stages of this Ph.D. is gratefully appreciated.

Last but most importantly, I am thankful to Almighty for every blessing he bestowed on me.
