ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Indeed the words at my command are not adequate to convey the depth of my feelings and gratitude to my advisor Dr. T.P. Singh, Reader, Department of Agronomy, A.S. (P.G.) College, Lakhaoti (Bulandshahr) for the most valuable and inspiring guidance, constant encouragement, enormous help and constructive criticism throughout the course of this investigation and preparation of this manuscript.

I express my heartiest thanks to Dr. Harbir Singh, Ex-Head of Agronomy Department, Dr. S.P. Singh, Reader in Agronomy and Dr. S.N. Dubey and Dr. Omvair Singh Thenua, Lecturers in the Deptt. of Agronomy, A.S. (P.G.) College, Lakhaoti for their help and guidance during the course of investigation.

The author is also thankful to the students of A.S. (P.G.) College, Lakhaoti for their help in carrying out this study.

I am highly indebted to my parents, brothers and sisters whose filial affection, love and blessings have been a beacon light for the successful completion of these achievements.
My special thanks goes to my beloved wife Mrs. Sunita and my daughters, Alpheec, Manisha and my son Snehil who have been the source of inspiration, encouragement and affection without which it was not possible for me to complete this investigation.

I also wish to thank Shri Homant Garg, Typist Meerut for typing this manuscript.

I would like to thank all those whose names have not figured here but have helped and encouraged me at various stages in the preparation of this manuscript.

At the last but not the least I extend my sincere thanks Principal and Farm superintendent of A.S. (P.G.) College, Lakhaoti for providing necessary facilities and help in carrying out the experimental studies successfully.

Lakhaoti
