ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I fall short of words to praise and thank Almighty Allah for His choicest blessings and His support that He bestowed me with and also giving me more than I have ever wished for.

To start with, I take pride in being a part of this prestigious institution, Aligarh Muslim University. This institution has given me knowledge, education and insight. It has made me what I am today as an individual both professionally and personally.

Writing this thesis has been fascinating and extremely rewarding. I would like to thank a number of people who have contributed to the final result in many different ways:

At the outset, I thank my supervisor, Prof. Rifaqat Ali Khan Rao, who has been unstinting in his support, constructive critique and precious guidance. His kind gestures, helpful suggestions and words of encouragement were a moral support throughout the course of this work. His flexibility and faith in me eased things for me while doing this work. He has been very kind and generous to me throughout the course of work.

I owe it all to my father and mother, who shaped me into what I am. Mumma and Daddy, how can I ever express it in words what you are to me. Your love, support and encouragement has made me feel most protected against all odds of life. You both gave me a good foundation and taught me how to be persistent and independent. I love you both so very much. I extend special thanks to my Grandparents, your prayers and supportive words made me accomplish this task without any hurdles. Sana api, Yusra, Usama, Aqqu, Ibrahim you all are very special to me and thank you for all the love and support you shower on me.

I owe a special thanks to my friends Uzma Manzoor and Arnima Bhargava. You have been a constant support and you mean a lot to me. You people have always been a pillar of support for me, whom I find there ready with wise pieces of advice whenever I am in trouble and patiently bearing all my tantrums. Thank you for surrounding my life with your good wishes and for all the precious memories along the way.

I extend a warm thanks to my friends cum colleagues Anam, Amna and Sharique for the ever so encouraging and supportive words and always being there by my side whenever I needed them.

I thank all my near and dear ones who have been there for me all through this time wishing the best for me.

I would also like to acknowledge the financial assistance in the form of Maulana Azad National Fellowship, Government of India, New Delhi.
