ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

A Professor once told me that a Ph.D is a long lonely road. I never imagined that I would get the support I got while doing my Ph.D.

When I started, I was struggling for an identity in an unsupportive world and in addition trying to overcome an acute respiratory problem. My thanks to Prof. Yogendra Singh for believing in me and giving me an opportunity to do a direct Ph.D. My thanks to his family for the affection they have always had for me.

My thanks to Dr. Shukla for curing my breathing problem and giving me a new lease of life.

My thanks to Ipsita Kathuria and Brinda Balakrishnan for introducing me to the managers in SAIL. My thanks to Yezad Kapadia and Patanjali Keswani for introducing me to the Taj Group.

My thanks to Amita Virmani and Y. Ramaswami for introducing me to DCM Data Products.

My thanks to Dr. P.P. Gupta for introducing me to the CMC group.

My thanks to Payal Batra and Capt. Tiwari for helping me to meet people in the ITDC.
My thanks to all those who made this study possible by giving me their valuable time filling out the questionnaires.

Matjaz Musek of ICPE Ljubljana for library help.

A number of friends propped me up when the going was rough. I want to thank Aabha, Anand, Stuffy for funfilled evenings at Vasant Kunj. The Pande family for lots of laughter and goodwill Nandita Srinath, Amita Jhadav, Shanti, Ramesh of CMC who made me feel that I was doing worthwhile things.

Suguna Joseph who taught me to be independent and aspire. Jasleen Vohra and Shireen Bedi for company and friendly advice.

To G K Sood and family who treated me as their own.

1991 was a very special year for me because I met my husband Sashi. From him I have gained in happiness and confidence. And he along with my father Dr. N.C.B. Nath has always put my happiness before his most unselfishly.

I must also thank my Father-in-law K.R.S. Krishna and my Mother-in-law Mangala S. Krishna who always encouraged me and took me for what I am.

To my grandmothers N.C. Kamalamma and Rajyalakshmi Seshadri for support and affection.
My thanks to my erstwhile domestics who contributed to the smooth running of the house Prabhu, Lakshmi, Margaret, Mary, Rajamma.

Even my detractors have contributed to my endeavour positively. It gives me great satisfaction to prove them wrong! (that I do not have the consistency to do a Ph.D).

The FAIR family at Delhi for all the lunches and friendly banter and help. K. Rajesh, Sanjay Chandwani for helping in the computer analysis of the data. Mrs. Manju Deogire special gratitude for painstakingly typing pages of bad handwriting.
