ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I first of all thank the Almighty God for his blessings, knowledge and opportunities that He bestowed on me.

It has been my privilege to work under Dr. D.T. Angadi, Associate Professor, Department of English, Gulbarga University, my revered and worthy guide, who has been a constant source of strength and inspiration. It is his noble guidance coupled with a helping and affectionate attitude, patient discussions throughout my research that have enabled me to conduct and complete this study well in time. I express my deep sense of gratitude and my heartfelt thanks to my research guide. I also express my sincere regards to loving Smt. Sharada D. Angadi and the whole family of my learned guide for their kind cooperation and support in completing my research work.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. V.R. Badiger and Dr. Ramesh Rathod, the then Professor and Head; and all my honorable teachers of The Department of English, Gulbarga University, Gulbarga for their encouragement and acts of kindness.

I take this opportunity to express my heartfelt regards to late Dr. S.S. Biradar my M.Phil. Guide, who encouraged and guided me to take up this research work. I also express my sincere regards to my respected mentors Prof Rajeshkhar Mansur, Prof Basavaraj Naikar, Prof. Ratnakar, Prof. M. Lingasur, Prof. C.L. Patil, Prof. Kotnis, Shri. A.A. Darga who have encouraged and inspired me to study English Literature, and to do this research work.

I wish to express my deep sense of reverence and gratitude to the Esteemed K.L.E Society and all its concerned authorities who gave their kind consent and encouragement to take up this noble work of research. I express my deep sense of gratitude to my Principals Prof. S.B. Nadagouda, Dr. C. Mallanna, Prof. J.R. Shindhe, Prof. D.A. Kolapure and all my dear colleagues and student friends without whose support this research work would not have been possible.
I am immensely delighted to thank my beloved Mother Smt.Jubeda Begum N.Inamdar and Father Shri Nijamuddin B.Inamdar for inspiring me to realize my potential. The relentless support they have provided me over the years was the greatest gift under whose nourishment I started to learn the value of hard work and an Education. I owe all my achievements to the blessings of my parents. Big thanks to my parents.

With a deep sense of gratitude and great pleasure I express my heartfelt thanks and indebtedness to my dearest soul mate my husband Shri. Ashfaq Ahmad I. Indikar, who has been a constant source of support and encouragement during the challenges of my research work and life. In fact it was his dream that made me to take up this Ph.D work. I am truly thankful for having you in my life.

I am grateful to my loving in laws Shri Imamsab. M. Indikar and Smt. Shabera begum I. Indikar for their continuous kind Co-operation and encouragement in completing this work. It is your support and motivation that always kept me going ahead. I also thank my brother in laws Farooq bhayya, Asif bhayya and Javid Bhaijaan for the support and encouragement during the research work.

I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to my uncles Mr. M.M. Tapal, B.M. Tapal, all and my loving uncles, Aunts, cousin brother Dr. Salim Dhundies, all my dear cousin brothers and sisters for their guidance and Inspiration. I feel privileged to be associated with all of you.

A very Special regard goes to Prof. A.I.Mujawar for the encouragement and his kind cooperation in collecting the primary and secondary sources for my research work.

It also becomes my proud privilege to express my profound and heart felt gratitude and love to my affectionate brother Md. Azharuddin and sisters Salma and Anjum for their endless moral and spiritual support throughout my research work and every step of my life. They are my strength, courage and guiding source; whenever I feel stopped I turn to them and gain the confidence and inspiration to go ahead confidently.

Last but not least I express my deep sense of love and gratitude to my dearest daughter Aimanzoha and loving son Reyam whose silent support and patient forbearance made this hardest toil enjoyable. It is their sense of sacrifice and belief in me has been an abiding source of inspiration and strength for me. My kids are the greatest gift of God and my hopes and dreams of tomorrow.
