First and foremost, I would like to pay my obeisance and gratitude to "Almighty God" the faith in whom helped me always.

It gives me immense pleasure to express my heart felt gratitude, indebtedness and humble regards to my esteemed teachers and supervisors Dr. Sudarsan Bhowmick, Professor and Dr. M. C. Ghosh, Associate Professor, Department of Physical Education, University of Kalyani. It is indeed a matter of great pride and experience without comparison to have the privilege of working under their ceaseless and untiring guidance. The present work has culminated due to their expert supervision, meticulous guidance and encouragement and most of all their zest for perfection and ability to solve each and every problem that cropped up during the completion of this work.

Their immense knowledge and constant help irrespective of how busy their schedule was proved instrumental in completion of this endeavour.

I am highly indebted to Professor A. K. Banerjee, Vice-Chancellor, University of Kalyani, for his inspiration and cooperation in the thesis work.

I am indebted to Dr. (Mrs.) Krishna Banerjee (Biswas), Professor and Dean, Faculty of Education, University of Kalyani for her persistent encouragement.
I shall remain indebted to Dr. Sanjib Mridha, Head, Department of Physical Education, Kalyani University, who motivated and inspired me to start with the thesis work leading to Ph. D. in the subject of physical education.

Thanks to Dr. Dilip Kumar Bandopadhyay, Associate Professor, Dr. Kanchan. Bandopadhyay, Professor, Dr. Nita Bandopadhyay, Assistant Professor, and all the staff members in Department of Physical Education for extending their help towards completion of my study.

I sincerely express my utmost gratitude to Prof. S. R. Ghosh, Ex-teacher and Mr. A. K. Saha, Ex-teacher, Department of Physical Education, University of Kalyani for their sympathetic assistance, valuable advice and constructive suggestions.

It is my pleasure to express deep gratitude to all the physical education teachers and staffs who provided useful help in the collection of information about my work without which it would not have been possible to complete this project.

I would like to place on record my sincere thanks to all those who have directly or indirectly rendered me various kinds of help during the entire course of present work.

I express my heartfelt thanks to the higher secondary male students who have served my study as subjects. It is indeed felt that the study would had not been completed without their sincere help and active cooperation.

I express my thanks to Mr. Sanjay Mandal for helping me in many ways to accomplish this thesis.
I thank Shri Arnab Ghosh, Shri Prasenjit Biswas, Mr. Jiaul Shaikh and Shri Arup Mahato who assisted me in collecting data for my research work.

I would be failing in my responsibility if I do not express my thanks to my family members whose constant encouragements and inspirations have motivated me to move ahead in the direction of completion of this thesis.

Last but not least, I express my special thanks to Mr. Supriyo Roy of M/s Tendercare Computers, Kalyani for his help in performing statistical analysis, typing and Xerox of this work so efficiently.

Date: 22/02/2012

( ATANU GHOSH)