ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

On retrospecting the efforts taken to complete this research project, I sincerely wish to express my gratitude towards all those who helped me to make this venture successful.

Firstly, I am indebted to my guide Dr. Minaxi Upadhyay, for sharing her views and ideas from time to time in developing this project. She has been a constant source of inspiration and encouragement throughout the course of this research.

I honestly thank all the expert advisors from the field of Education, Psychology and Statistics for helping me to make the tools of present research valid, reliable, compact and concise.

I wish to express my respect to the authorities and teacher educators from various BEd colleges of University of Mumbai, who not only spared their valuable time to convey relevant information needed for this research but also shared their opinions regarding present status of newly introduced BEd course. I am thankful to them for their kind co-operation.

Analysis of data, a heart of descriptive survey research, was impossible without expert’s support. A priceless help of two young budding statisticians Prof. Mr. Pritesh Patil and Mr. Sohum Pawar (my son) proved to be very valuable contributors in this regard.

The responsibility of typing of research report, a work of patience and perseverance, was successfully handled by Mr. Jaibhai and Mrs. Shamshad Khan. Designing the models and diagrams as per the requirements, was done very skilfully by Mr. Hari Jogaleker and Mr. Abdulla Khan. I am grateful to all of them.

Formatting of research report goes hand in hand with its typing, which was handled meticulously and exquisitely by Mrs. Shamshad Khan. I genuinely thank her for her sincere efforts in this regard.

The course work at the spacious and soothing campus of JJTU (Rajasthan) made the journey of this research work memorable. Dr. Rakhee Kelaskar, a coordinator of JJTU (Andheri centre), without whose support, technical formalities, participation/presentations in conferences and research paper publication would not have taken their shape. I am indebted to her and to the staff of JJTU for their valuable guidance from time to time.

I highly appreciate Preeti Khatri, Sharifa and Surekha for sparing me from routine household chores during the span of present study.

My friends…Mr Anurag Jangir, Dr Rita, Dr Chaudareddy, Dr Kapile and Mr Shantanu Banerjee, who shared their experiences about the formalities and technical aspects related to thesis writing, on-line submission of thesis, pre-thesis submission and publication of research papers as well … immense thanks to all of them.

Last but not the least, I highly appreciate the moral support (and also financial support) given by my family members to sustain my enthusiasm till the completion of this research work.
