ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This study won’t be complete without acknowledging my sincere thanks to all persons who have helped me in the preparation of this dissertation.

I owe deep gratitude to Dr. R. Vasanthagopal, Associate Professor, P.G & Research Department of Commerce, The Cochin College, Kochi, who moulded me towards the research and guided me throughout my research work. Without his help and encouragement, it would have been difficult to accomplish this task.

I am obliged to the University Grants Commission and the DCDC, University of Kerala, for granting me teacher fellowship under FDP. I am also indebted to Mahatma Gandhi University for the research facilities provided.

I am indebted to the Secretary and Chairman of Mannaniya College of Arts and Science, Pangode, and Dr. Abdul Samad, Principal (Retd.) for the deputation granted me for undertaking the research work.

I am thankful to Dr. Azif, Principal, Mannaniya College of Arts and Science, Pangode, and other members of the teaching and non teaching staff for the inspiration and encouragement given to me for completing the work on time.

My sincere thanks to the librarians and staff of various libraries at Centre for Development Studies, University of Kerala, Public Library, Thiruvananthapuram, Cochin University of Science and Technology, The Cochin College, Kochi, University of Calicut, Calicut, Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, IITTM, Gwalior, for making available to me the required materials essential for the study.

I am grateful to the Principal, The Cochin College, Kochi for giving permission to do research in the Centre and providing all the necessary facilities for the successful completion of this work.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. T.N. Sugathan, Director, Centre for Survey Research and Management Services, Ernakulam, for his advice in the application of appropriate statistics in my thesis. Dr. S. Subhash Chandran, Head of Department of English (Retd.), S.N. College, Kollam, deserves special thanks for reading through the proofs.
I gratefully remember my parents, my wife Sumam and my daughter Vaishnavi S. Raj and son Vishnu S. Raj, and other members of my family who encouraged me in this endeavour.

RAJESH. T
