ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deep sense of gratitude, indebtedness and sincere thanks to my guide Dr. S. G. Shirodkar for the invaluable service rendered by him in completion of this research work. He motivated, inspired and always stood behind me during the research activities.

I feel short of words to express my gratitude to Dr. S. P. Pachling, Chairman, Board of Studies, S. R. T. M. University, Nanded for his valuable guidance and advice given from time to time, which has helped me in completion of the thesis.

The inspiration and generous treatments of respected Professor and Head, Dr. B. P. Bandgar, has always kept me in high academic spirit during the progress of research work.

I place my sincere thanks to Shri. Balasaheb Pande; President, Abhinav Bharat Shikshan Sanstha, Shri. M. A. Joshi, Secretary, ABSS, Nanded and Dr. B. P. Vaidya; Principal, N. S. B. College, Nanded for their cooperation and constant encouragement.

I am very much thankful to the members of our research group B. M. Dhoot, G. B. Pande, P. P. Joshi, R. V. Vidule and S. S. Chandole for the joyful company in the laboratory.
I am thankful to all the staff members for their constructive guidelines in the presentation of my research work. My thanks are also to my friends and lab assistants who had given me their kind cooperation.

I thank Mr. Prabhu Wavde for typing the thesis neatly and without typographical errors.

I owe sincere gratitude to my parents for their constant encouragement and sharing cheerfully the difficulties encountered during my educational life.

Last but not least, I am thankful to my beloved wife Vaishali for having put with the inconveniences caused during the entire period of research activities.
